COMPROMISE FOR THE ADRIATIC PROBLEM

TREATY WITH AUSTRIA SIGNED BY DELEGATES OF JUGO-SLAV NATION

Treaty Protecting Racial Minorities Becomes Binding; Bulgarian Delegates Will Sign Treaty at Neuilly To-morrow Forenoon

Paris, Nov. 26.—Plenipotentiaries of Jugo-Slavia will sign the Austrian peace treaty at five o'clock this afternoon. They will attach their signatures simultaneously to the treaty for the protection of racial minorities, to the arrangement of reparations concerning Italy and also to the financial arrangement concerning the sharing of expenses in the liberation of the former Austro-Hungarian monarchy.

The time for the signing of the Bulgarian peace treaty has been definitely fixed. The Bulgarian plenipotentiaries will sign the document at the Neuilly Town Hall at 10.30 o'clock to-morrow forenoon.

DECLARES TEACHERS PREACH ANARCHY

Montreal Roman Catholic School Board Head Scores Association

Montreal, Nov. 26.—Asserting that the teachers belonging to the Teachers' Welfare Association are preaching anarchy and paving the way to Bolshevism, Judge Lafontaine, president of the Montreal Roman Catholic School Board, refused to hear a delegation of the Association yesterday afternoon. Not only did the president state that he did not approve of the Association, but he added that if the delegates were admitted to the Board's room, he would take his hat and walk out.

In Ontario.
Ottawa, Nov. 26.—Ten thousand men and women, public school teachers of Ontario, are to become organized shortly. They are to be formed into the Federation of Male Teachers of Ontario, and the Federation of Female Teachers of Ontario, respectively, but the bodies will co-operate whenever their mutual interests become affected.

WAVE OF SMALLPOX IN ONTARIO NOW

Vaccination Is Urged by the Toronto Academy of Medicine

Toronto, Nov. 26.—"The epidemic that is at present developing in Ontario is smallpox," declared the Council of the Academy of Medicine, Toronto, in a statement to the press signed by Dr. E. E. King, president, in refutation of statements made by "irresponsible and prejudiced persons" to the effect that it is chickenpox, not smallpox, that is raging in this city, and that more deaths occurred from vaccination than from smallpox. The doctor's statement admits that the majority of smallpox cases in Ontario are mild, but adds that "most epidemics develop from a mild form to one of grave severity."

"Vaccination is the only known protection against the disease," according to the statement, and "when properly performed is not a dangerous operation."

Quarantine.
Detroit, Mich., Nov. 26.—Residents of Canadian border cities continued to-day to besiege the offices of their physicians to be vaccinated following announcement yesterday that a strict quarantine would be placed on traffic across the Detroit River to this city because of the prevalence of smallpox in certain interior communities of Ontario.

According to the announcement, the quarantine, which became effective this morning, to continue for thirty days, provides that only such persons as can show vaccination certificates will be permitted to land on the Michigan side of the river.

WELL-KNOWN LADY DIES AT CALGARY

Mrs. Blackwood - Wileman Passes on Way Home From Convention

Women's Institute members throughout the province of British Columbia will be shocked to hear of the death of Mrs. Blackwood-Wileman, chairman of the Advisory Board of B. C. Institutes, who has passed away in Calgary while on her way home from the sessions of the Federated Women's Institutes, held in Toronto two weeks ago. Pending the arrival of Mr. Blackwood-Wileman, who is expected to arrive in Victoria to-night, no details of her death are known, beyond the fact that she was taken from the train in Calgary towards the end of last week, seriously ill, little hope being held out for her recovery.

Held High Ideals.
The late Adeline Blackwood-Wileman was one of the foremost public women of Vancouver Island, and, indeed, of the Province. An Englishwoman by birth she held the highest views on the subject of Empire unity and worked unceasingly to that end, counting no task too small and none too large to further the ideals of Empire and to uphold its traditions. This sentiment inspired Mrs. Blackwood-Wileman to take a keen interest in the Women's Institute movement some years ago. She held the view

Mr. Lloyd George is Watching Prohibition Operations in States

London, Nov. 26.—Mr. Lloyd George said to-day that he never had thought introduction of prohibition in Great Britain possible, even during the war, but that he was watching the American experiment sympathetically, with a mind free from pre-conceived opinions.

The Prime Minister's reply to a temperance deputation to which he made this remark foreshadowed legislation before Christmas in connection with the control of liquor.

NEW PROPOSAL FOR IRELAND PROVIDES TWO PARLIAMENTS

London, Nov. 26.—A new Home Rule bill setting up two Parliaments in Ireland and a Council or Senate of forty to be chosen from the two probably will be introduced in Parliament within the next two weeks.

Daily sessions are being held by the Cabinet committee in charge of the measure, the subject under discussion at present being finance, which is in charge of a sub-committee under the chairmanship of Rt. Hon. J. Austen Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer. Control of customs always has been a point of sharpest difference when other Home Rule

PROFIT ON SHOES FIXED BY BOARD

From To-day Retailers Are Allowed 33 1-3 Per Cent. Gross

Commerce Board Says Higher Figure Will Give Unfair Profit

Ottawa, Nov. 26.—An important order issued by the Board of Commerce to-day fixes the margin of gross profit allowed to retailers of boots, shoes, rubbers, overshoes, galoshes and other articles usually sold within retail establishments in Canada at 33 1-3 per cent. The order states that sales of any of these commodities in contravention of this order shall be deemed to bear an unfair profit.

It is furthermore ordered that up to and including December 24, 1919, any person concerned, whether vendor or consumer, may apply in writing to the Board for any amendment of variation of the order to have effect territorially or otherwise, but notwithstanding the terms of the order it shall have effect from to-day.

All Signed.
The order is signed by all three members of the Board.
Hearings in regard to profits on boots, shoes, etc., were held at Winnipeg, Toronto and Hamilton, and representations were made to the Board by counsel representing the Governments of Manitoba and Saskatchewan.

PRICES OF LUMBER RAISED BY MILLS

Market Committee of B. C. Lumber Manufacturers Increases Figures

Vancouver, Nov. 26.—The market committee of the British Columbia Lumber Manufacturers' Association met yesterday and made a decided upward jump in the lumber prices for rail and domestic trade.

Timbers were raised $2 per 1,000, bringing the base price to about $23. Dimensions and boards were put up $3, giving a base price of approximately $32.50, with $34 for eight and ten inch ship lap. The most marked advance, however, was in cleats, which were put up a straight $5, making No. 1 flooring now $70, V-joint $55 and drop siding $56.

This is the third increase made in the price of lumber since November 1, and others are expected as the spring trade takes on new proportions.

Logs also advanced in price this week to the extent of $2 on low grades and $1 on No. 1's.

United States Peace Delegates Will Leave Paris December 5

Paris, Nov. 26.—Any delay which may eventually be found necessary in the exchange of ratifications required to put the German peace treaty into effect will not change the plans of the American peace delegation, it was learned to-day. Under-Secretary of State Polk and the other delegates will leave Paris on the evening of December 5.

GOVERNMENT MOVES Against Sinn Fein to Stamp it Out

Dublin, Nov. 26.—Widespread suppression of the Sinn Fein and other organizations in Ireland has been ordered by the Government. The official Gazette publishes to-day a proclamation prohibiting and suppressing Sinn Fein organizations, Sinn Fein clubs, the Irish Volunteers, the Cumann na mBan and the Gaelic League in all counties and boroughs of Ireland.

British Officer is Murdered in Cairo During Street Riot

Cairo, Nov. 23.—Delayed.—A British officer was murdered during a street riot here last night. Other British soldiers were fired upon by the demonstrators and one soldier was wounded.

ANGELES, OF 75-MILLIMETRE GUN FAME, EXECUTED TO-DAY

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 26.—General Felipe Angeles, Mexican revolutionary leader, was executed by a Carranza firing squad at Chihuahua City early to-day, following his conviction, with two companions, on charges of rebellion against the Mexican Government, according to a telegraphic report from Chihuahua City.

General Angeles was sentenced to death by four Carranza generals in the Teatro de los Heroes ("Theatre of the Heroes"), at 10.45 o'clock last night. He was immediately taken from the building through a rear entrance to await execution, which was set for 7 a. m. to-day. At that time he was shot, according to the report reaching here.

General Angeles was entirely unmoved apparently as sentence was passed. Throughout the trial the military leader, famous among military men of the world as the man who brought the French 75-millimetre gun to perfection and made it admittedly the best piece of artillery ordnance in the world, presented a smiling countenance to his accusers.

Sensational Trial.
The trial was the most sensational ever held in Chihuahua City, where Angeles and two companions were brought after their capture near Parral by state volunteer troops November 19.

Four companions were captured with Angeles after their discovery in a cave in a hill that faces San Tome, Mexico. Two of these already have been executed by Carranza troops. Of others in the small party with General Angeles, five were killed in the fight that ensued in trying to escape the state troops.

The two remaining companions, Major Noster Enciso de Arce and the soldier Antonio Trillo, were joint defendants with their chief before the court martial. Major de Arce also was sentenced to death, but his sentence was commuted to twenty years' imprisonment. Trillo, a seventeen-year-old boy, was sentenced to serve six years and eight months in prison.

Without Fear.
Chihuahua City, Mex., Nov. 26.—General Felipe Angeles, revolutionary leader, was executed to-day inside the barracks of the 21st Regiment of Cavalry by a firing squad. Many spectators were present. General Angeles died without visible emotion or fear.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 26.—The Chihuahua City correspondent of The El Paso Herald has telegraphed his paper that General Felipe Angeles was executed by a Carranza firing squad in Chihuahua City at six a. m. to-day.

TWO SHIPS DRIVEN ASHORE IN STORM

Big Gale Continues to Lash Waters of Lake Superior

Sault Ste Marie, Mich., Nov. 26.—The storm that has swept Lake Superior since last Saturday showed no signs of ceasing to-day, reports reaching here indicating that shipping generally was lying in various shelters. A high northeast gale was lashing the east end of the lake, and two more vessels, unidentified in reports here, have been driven ashore in the blinding snowstorm. One of them grounded during the night in the upper St. Mary's River near the point where the Ketchikan went ashore yesterday. Another steamship was reported ashore on Whitefish Point.

Towed to Port.
The W. C. Richardson, disabled while seeking shelter from the storm, was being towed to this port to-day by tug.

No word that would indicate the fate of the crew of the Myron, which went down Saturday, has been received here, and the owners of the vessel have not abandoned hope of their rescue.

GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S TRAIN IN SMASH

Borden and Burrell Also on Board; No One Hurt

Ottawa, Nov. 26.—A special train conveying the Governor-General and his staff, Sir Robert Borden and Hon. Martin Burrell, which left Halifax at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, met with an accident at 11 o'clock this morning near Drummondville, about sixty miles east of Montreal. At that point a freight train had failed to clear the main line and the engine of the special collided with it. The passenger train was under good control and the impact was not great. No one was hurt but it was necessary to secure a fresh engine and the mishap will delay the arrival of the Governor-General's train in Ottawa until probably 5.30 this evening instead of 4 o'clock.

Drummondville is not on the inter-colonial proper but on that portion of the Grand Trunk known as the joint section, over which the Canadian Government system has running rights.

STATE PROVINCE NOT TREATED FAIRLY

B. C. Manufacturers Say Province Not Getting Ottawa Appointments

Vancouver, Nov. 26.—That Western Canada, particularly British Columbia, does not receive fair consideration in the appointment of representatives on important national boards and commissions was a charge made at a meeting of the B. C. Manufacturers' Association here last night. The association executive will endeavor to arrange a round table conference with the council of the Board of Trade and the British Columbia members of Parliament, when "straight talk" will be the order of the day.

In moving for the conference, J. A. Cunningham was frank in his criticism of the appointments made by the Government on the executive of the Canadian National Railways, Foreign Trade Commission and war purchasing and customs boards. Western men had not been chosen for positions on these bodies, he declared, and it appeared that British Columbia was too far away from Ottawa to receive fair consideration.

Bombs Exploded in Lisbon Kill Person and Injure Several

Lisbon, Nov. 26.—Bombs were exploded in a railway station here last night. One person was killed and some others injured.

BOARD REGULATES PROFIT ON BACON

Twenty Per Cent. For Retailers, With Allowance For Slicing

Order Made Elastic to Provide for Liveweight Changes

Ottawa, Nov. 26.—Retailers of bacon and boned ham are limited to a margin or gross profit of twenty per cent., with an additional two cents a pound for slicing, under an order issued by the Board of Commerce, signed by all three members of the Board. The order contemplates its future application to retail sales of all kinds of pork and pork products, it is stated in an accompanying explanation, and is the first order which has been applied to the retailers. They are given until December 24 to show why the order should not apply to all pork products, limiting the profits on other pork products to twenty-five per cent. after January 1 next. This order was made after the Board had heard H. W. Whittle, K.C., in regard to the Manitoba proceedings affecting these commodities.

Elastic Order.
It is pointed out that the previous orders relating to the prices of pork and pork products related to those prevailing as on March 10, 1919. After these orders had been made the packers reduced their prices to conform with the orders. The present reduced prices are now made the basis instead of those prevailing on March 10. At the same time, to provide for changes in the cost of live hogs, the new order has been made of an elastic character. As prices of the live hog drop the prices of the finished product should drop, all the more after the lapse of the necessary period consumed in the process of manufacture. Should the price of

Section in Hungary at Work Now Trying to Restore Monarchy

Budapest, Nov. 26.—Posters demanding the restoration of the Royal Arms on public buildings and declaring the proclamation of the Hungarian Republic unlawful appeared in this city overnight. It is generally regarded that these posters mark the opening of the Royalist party's election campaign.

Bombs Set Off at Captain-General's House in Barcelona

Barcelona, Nov. 26.—Three bombs exploded beneath windows of the home of the Captain-General of Catalonia here last night at 11 o'clock. Two soldiers on guard at the residence were slightly wounded.

COAL SITUATION NOW FORCES ACTION BY U. S. GOVERNMENT

Washington, Nov. 26.—A definite and final statement on behalf of the Government in the coal wage controversy will be made to the operators and miners late to-day by Fuel Administrator Garfield.

It was stated this morning that the national coal situation had reached a crisis, in the view of officials here, and drastic steps to curtail consumption were in contemplation. It was said unofficially that among other steps an order prohibiting the manufacture of coke had been prepared.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—Progress to-day of the national strike of bituminous coal miners into the twenty-sixth day was without marked development.

The gradually decreasing fuel supply forced additional shutting down of plants in the Middle West, and in the South the Regional Coal Committee requested all industries which could do so without heavy financial loss to close down from this evening until Monday morning.

Production.
Production in West Virginia to-day held up to the standard maintained since the strike went into effect, with smaller quantities added from the order.

ADRIATIC TANGLE MAY BE SETTLED IN A WAY SATISFACTORY TO ALL

Conversations in Paris Make Headway; Rear-Admiral Millo Gives up Claim to the D'Annunzio Title "Governor of Dalmatia"

London, Nov. 26.—Considerable improvement in the Adriatic situation is reported here as a result of conversations in Paris between British, French, Italian and Jugo-Slav representatives. The latest indications are that there is a possibility of a compromise settlement satisfactory to all parties, including Captain Gabriele d'Annunzio.

Rome, Nov. 26.—Rear-Admiral Enrico Millo, who has acted as Governor of Dalmatia as well as commander of the occupation forces in that country, has resigned the former office.

Rear-Admiral Enrico Millo recently has taken a prominent

LAWSON ELECTED TO BRITISH HOUSE

Labor Man Wins in Chester-le-Street By-Election

London, Nov. 26.—John Lawson, Laborite, has been elected to the House of Commons in the by-election in Chester-le-Street, Durham County. Mr. Lawson polled 17,378 votes as against 5,313 cast for his National Democratic opponent, David Gilmour. The election was held on November 12.

Higher Salaries.
London, Nov. 26.—Labor members of the House of Commons are agitating for an increase in their parliamentary salaries, which are now about $2,000 per annum. The present salary, which represents a pre-war purchasing value of approximately $800, is regarded as hopelessly inadequate for the maintenance of a legislator in London.

It is understood that a proposal is to be put forward for a modified plan of payment by attendance. The demand which is being canvassed is that every member of Parliament living out of London should be entitled to travelling expenses and a maintenance allowance of $5 for every day on which he attends Parliament.

Another Day of Irregular Prices on the Paris Bourse

Paris, Nov. 26.—Prices were irregular on the Bourse to-day. Three per cent. rents were at 60 francs, 10 per cent. and exchange on London at 39 francs, 30 centimes. The dollar was quoted at 9 francs 68 1/2 centimes.

COAL STOCKS LOW FOR COLD SPELL

Public May Suffer With Deliveries From Mines Uncertain

If the cold snap should continue in Victoria, precipitating a rush for fuel as has been the result in former years, the stocks of coal in the yards of this city would be exhausted in twelve hours, dealers said to-day.

The shortage is particularly acute in the higher priced grades of coal, especially lump. To protect domestic customers one dealer this morning turned down the sale of twenty-five tons of lump coal in one lot for which he was offered a substantial premium. If he had sold this he would not be able to supply his domestic customers for two or three days.

Delivery of coal from the mines is uncertain. With the demand from consumers steady, the result is that stocks in the yards and on wharves are continually at the low point and no opportunity is given the distributors to build up these stocks.

It is this situation that W. G. Gaunce, coast fuel controller, is now investigating, with the object of arranging and regulating export business so that the local demand will be supplied first.

Predicts Cold Winter.
With a severe shortage of coal existing, Victoria faces the possibility of a cold winter of the kind which paralyzed business in 1918. This information has been borne to Provincial Police officials so frequently of late by Indians all over the Island that the forecasts are regarded with considerable attention.

The natives declare that all signs in the forests point to a heavy winter throughout the Province. It is noted that fur on furbearing animals has grown much earlier and much thicker than last year, and that many of the birds have migrated earlier than usual. The appearance of the trees, too, the Indians claim, indicates a cold season.

GERMAN PRISONERS TO CONTINUE WORK

Must Labor in Northern France, Premier Clemenceau Tells Germans

London, Nov. 26.—A wireless message from Berlin last evening gave the text of a stern note which M. Clemenceau, President of the Peace Conference, sent to the chairman of the German delegation at Versailles, refusing to deviate from the terms of the peace treaty in favor of German prisoners who are employed at work of reconstruction in devastated Northern France.

Referring to the brutal treatment meted out to the population of this district under the German occupation, M. Clemenceau was quoted as saying: "The deepest sentiments of the human heart have been so cruelly injured that French public opinion cannot agree to grant the favor of your request."

The note set forth that Germany had systematically delayed the performance of the armistice terms, and insisted on the sinking of the German warships in Scapa Flow, the delay in the delivery of German ships, Germany's Baltic policy and the anti-Entente propaganda in Alsace and the world at large, and declared: "We owe nothing to Germany except the precise fulfillment of the provisions of the peace treaty accepted by Germany."

German Statement.
Berlin, Nov. 26.—Via London, Nov. 26.—Referring to the note of Premier Clemenceau to the German Government on the question of German prisoners, a semi-official statement issued here to-day says:

"The Government does not repudiate its obligations under the treaty, and does not desire to withdraw really guilty persons from just punishment. It has, however, made suggestions to the Allied Governments through a Foreign Office official which seem calculated to avoid inconveniences for both the contracting parties."

PROTEST MADE BY LATIN-AMERICANS

Object to Governing Body of International Labor
Office

Washington, Nov. 26.—Latin-America loudly protests against the proposed constitution of the governing body of the International Labor Office. The question arose at yesterday afternoon's sitting of the International Labor Conference.

For the four vacancies on the body for Government representatives, it was officially announced there had been elected the following countries: the votes cast being indicated in each case:

Spain, 29; Argentina, 26; Canada, 20; Poland, 16; Denmark and Romania, each, 15; Norway, 4; India, 3; Cuba and Sweden, one each.

The employers' six nominees to the governing body were:

Sir Allan Smith, Great Britain; Louis Guerin, France; Signor Perelli, Italy; Jules Garlier, Belgium; F. He-dasec, Czech-Slovakia, and pending the appointment of a representative of the United States, Dietrich Snyder, Switzerland.

Workers.

The workers' six nominees were: Leon Johaux, France; J. Oudegeest, Holland; G. H. Stuart-Bunning, Great Britain; A. H. Lindquist, Sweden; and, pending the appointment of a United States representative, P. M. Draper, Canada.

It was the Canadian delegation which led the criticism of the body's composition. The Canadians complained that only a single place had been accorded on the governing body to the twenty Latin-American countries represented at the conference.

A protest signed by all the representatives of Latin-American countries was formally submitted to the conference.

Both employers' and workers' delegates from South Africa also intimated that a formal complaint would be lodged against the way in which the members of the governing body had been elected. The discussion was brought to an end by a closure motion, and the Conference proceeded to discussion of the committee report on unemployment.

Moore Spoke.

During another discussion Tom Moore, president of the Canadian Trades and Labor Congress, pointed out that the special committee in its report presented a recommendation that the provisions of this convention should not interfere with any better conditions already agreed upon. In Mr. Moore's view the recommendation did not go far enough.

"There is no country," Mr. Moore declared, "which has more than Canada fought for something entirely different from the entire report, but we intend that the convention and anything we vote upon must be accepted as a minimum, and not as a maximum condition. I want to assure the conference, on behalf of the workers of Canada, that we will endeavor to give all the support we can to the Government of Canada to see that the obligations of the treaty are carried out. I want to state also that we disassociate ourselves entirely from the view expressed by Mr. Parsons, which is one of isolation from the rest of the world and subservient to the United States. Canada has made international obligations. The workers will do their part in carrying them out."

SCHEME FOR GOOD ROADS IN ONTARIO

Toronto, Nov. 26.—Hon. F. C. Biggs, Provincial Minister of Public Works, who has been inspecting roads in Ontario, says that his idea is not to build a, speedway from one end of the province to the other, but to give a good surface road with absolutely perfect continuous maintenance whereby the roads at no time will become impassable but will always be in a reasonable condition for the traveling public.

TALK OF GENERAL RAILWAY STRIKE IN THE UNITED STATES

Chicago, Nov. 26.—National leaders of the four great railway brotherhoods held a secret session yesterday at which the insistence of many local unions that a general strike of all railways workers in the United States be called by December 1, to enforce demands for a general increase in pay, was given serious consideration, according to information received here. It was said by one union official that many of the delegates who are now in Cleveland went there with the specific purpose of forcing the general committee to call the nation-wide strike.

Cleveland, Nov. 26.—The 500 general chairmen of the four great railway brotherhoods called in conference here by the four chief executives to consider the offer of Director General Hines, granting time and one-half for overtime in slow freight service, and a uniform sixteen-hour rule for crews held away from home terminals, voted yesterday to accept the "away from home" rule, but did not reach a vote on the overtime proposition.

MANUFACTURERS TALK WITH OTTAWA MINISTERS

Ottawa, Nov. 26.—The method to be adopted by the Government for gathering information which would be of assistance in the creation of Canada's future fiscal policy was discussed by a deputation from the Eastern section of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association and four Cabinet Ministers yesterday. The conference was held behind closed doors, and at its conclusion Sir George Foster stated that the matter under consideration was simply "the adoption of machinery in the best approved form for gathering information upon which the Government could rely in making its investigation into, and coming to conclusions on the future fiscal policy of Canada."

Sir George gave no inkling as to what suggestions had been made by the members of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association. They were received by Sir George Foster, Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, Hon. J. A. Calder and Sir Henry Drayton. The conference lasted about an hour and a half.

FAREWELL MESSAGE TO CANADA FROM PRINCE OF WALES

Ottawa, Nov. 26.—A farewell message received by the Governor-General from the Prince of Wales, who left Halifax for the United Kingdom yesterday afternoon on the battle-cruiser Renown, said:

"I, M. S. Renown, am weighing anchor, and I feel that my visit to Canada is really at an end. I can never forget it, nor can I express the whole of my deep gratitude for the open-hearted welcome which the Canadian comrades-in-arms and all my Canadian fellow countrymen and women have given me."

"Will you please convey this message of thanks, most inadequate though it may be, to Sir Robert Borden and the whole Dominion Government, whose care and hospitality throughout my visit have been so generous and so kind. The last four months will influence the whole of my life, and I shall never be happy if many months elapse without a visit to my home on this side of the Atlantic."

"My best wishes to all the people of Canada till we meet again."

"EDWARD P."

JELICOE WILL GO TO SAN FRANCISCO

San Francisco, Nov. 26.—Admiral Viscount Jellicoe, former Commander-in-Chief of the British Grand Fleet, will visit San Francisco early in January, according to announcement from the office here of Rear-Admiral Joseph L. Jayne, commandant of the Twelfth Naval District. While here he will be the guest of Admirals Rodman and Jayne, it was announced. The possibility of his visiting other American Pacific ports was expressed by Admiral Jayne's office.

ALLIES RECOGNIZE HUNGARIAN CABINET

Budapest, Nov. 25.—Via London, Nov. 26.—The Entente has recognized the new Cabinet formed by Karl Huszar conditional on elections to a National Assembly being held forthwith.

A Quinine That Does Not Affect Head Because of its tonic and laxative effect, LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE (Tablets) can be taken by anyone without causing nervousness or ringing in the head. There is only one "Bromo Quinine." E. W. GROVE'S signature on the box. 30c.

ARMISTICE ANNULLED.

Vienna, Nov. 25.—Via London, Nov. 26.—The Ukrainian Legation here says that the armistice between General Denikin and the Galician Ukrainian army, concluded on October 24, has been annulled in consequence of the discovery that General Tarnowsky had treacherously negotiated behind Feltina's back. Tarnowsky and his associates have been arrested and will be court-martialed.

LUDENDORFF AND W. HOHENZOLLERN CHEERED BY CROWD

Berlin, Nov. 25.—Via London, Nov. 26.—The presence of General Ludendorff, former First Quartermaster-General of the German army in the former Imperial post of the Potsdam garrison church yesterday during a memorial service for Germans who fell in battle, was the occasion for a striking demonstration. General Ludendorff spoke of military training as an invigorating and moral education. One of the congregation, dressed in a field grey uniform, rose and exclaimed: "When the hour comes, we will follow you, General," whereupon the whole congregation stood and sang "Deutschland Über Alles."

In the course of his sermon the preacher said: "When the time comes we shall die bravely for our brothers and our honor and not disgrace ourselves." At the close of the sermon, the preacher, standing on the tomb of Frederick the Great, summoned the congregation to unite in creating a monarchy which would be supported by the will of the people.

General Ludendorff was given an ovation as he left the building, and cheers also were raised for W. H. Hohenzollern, the former Kaiser.

ARMY PAY CHEQUES STOLEN AT CALGARY

Calgary, Nov. 26.—Ninety-two demobilization pay cheques were stolen from the armories of Military District No. 13 at noon yesterday during the absence of the paymaster. The total value of the cheques is nearly $5,000. The city police are investigating but have made no arrests as yet.

BOLSHEVIKI AND THEIR PEACE MOVE

London, Nov. 26.—A Bolshevik wireless dispatch from Moscow received here quotes The Pravda as declaring that the Soviet Government is willing to negotiate a peace with the Entente and the Imperialists, but only on condition that the Entente shall undertake not to support the counter-revolutionaries.

London, Nov. 26.—Impudent attacks by enemies of the revolution have brought about a miracle. We have gained a full victory over Kolchak, which will be of historic importance for the peoples of the East. This statement was made by Bolshevik Premier Lenin in the course of an address to the All-Russian Congress of the Mussulman Communist organizations of Eastern peoples, according to a Bolshevik wireless message from Moscow. He continued:

"At the same time attacks from the West are weakening. The Versailles peace is the greatest blow the Entente could inflict upon itself. The people see clearly that President Wilson is not bringing liberty to democracy even for the victorious nations, and are indebted to unmasked America."

TAX EXEMPTION.

ASK YOUR NEIGHBOR

It has been said that there is now hardly a city, town or village in this country wherein some woman does not reside who has found health in that good, old-fashioned remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Therefore, if you are suffering from some ailment, and hardly know what to do for it, and have tried other remedies without help, ask your neighbor if she has ever used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If she herself has never had the need for it undoubtedly she knows others who were just in your condition and who have been restored to health by its use.

GIVEN FOUR YEARS.

CAR OF SUGAR IN U. S. TRAVELS FAR AND COST MOUNTS

Chicago, Nov. 26.—A carload of sugar originally consigned by the Godechaux Sugar Company, Nashville, Tenn., to J. P. Hadesman & Company, Chicago, rolled about undelivered for a month, was resold four times and piled up four and one-half cents a pound additional cost to the consumer, according to a statement today by R. J. Poole, City Food Director, here. This car passed from broker to broker, said Mr. Poole, piling up charges of $2,466. Mr. Poole's tabulation was only for the month ended November 15, he said, and the car, "so far as we know, still is rolling."

TAXATION HEARING IN TERMINAL CITY

Premier Differs With C. E. Tisdall; Suggestion Province Issue Currency

Vancouver, Nov. 26.—The session of the Commission inquiring into the taxation question was enlivened yesterday afternoon by several incidents, chief among them being a tilt between Premier Oliver and C. E. Tisdall, who was Minister of Public Works under the Bowser regime, and the advocacy before the Commission of a cure-all for the taxation situation in the way of doing away with all indebtedness by the issuance of money by the province wherewith to pay the debts and thus avoid interest payments. The Commission concluded its sittings in Vancouver shortly before 6 o'clock, and will reopen the hearings in Nelson on Thursday morning.

Mr. Tisdall appeared along with a delegation from the civic bureau of the Vancouver Board of Trade to register opposition to the proposed business or occupancy tax, and to record the opinion that the city should receive some portion of the revenue now derived by the Government from the income tax and from the motorcar and amusement taxes.

The Premier wanted to know how the Province could make up the deficit if certain revenues were handed over to the city.

Mr. Tisdall replied that he was not dealing with the Provincial side of the question.

Responsible.

"No, but as a citizen you are as responsible in this matter as is anyone else," said the Premier.

Mr. Tisdall suggested then that the remedy might lie in more economical administration of the Province's affairs.

"We will have to cross swords on this matter in the future," he added. "This is not a question of party politics," objected the Premier. "This is a Provincial matter."

"It is hard to avoid party politics in discussing this question," said Mr. Tisdall.

"All right, then go ahead," retorted the Premier.

Hon. John Hart thought party politics would have to be debarred from the discussion.

Money Issue.

George Turner urged that Provincial should be allowed to issue money in the same way the Dominion did. Interest charges on the borrowed money were so large that he did not think they should be paid. He declared there was a money trust in Canada, with headquarters at Ottawa, which had voted itself great privileges and which controlled the medium of exchange. It collected revenue from every Province and municipality in the Dominion, and its control was so great that it was impossible for the Dominion ever to pay its debts. The Bankers' Association had issued over $225,000,000 worth of paper money on the credit of the people of Canada.

LESS MEAT IF BACK AND KIDNEYS HURT

Take a glass of Salts to flush Kidneys if Bladder bothers you.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat scotches the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

EDMONDSON MAN FORCED TO QUIT; IS BACK ON JOB

Emblin Gains More Than Seventeen Pounds After Taking Tanlac

"My health broke completely down, and I had to give up my work entirely, but now since I have taken Tanlac I have gone back to work in perfect condition and seventeen pounds heavier," said F. Emblin, a well-known brick-layer of 3733 Eighty-Fifth Avenue, Edmonton, Alberta, who saw service in France with the Canadian Expeditionary Forces, where he was wounded twice and gassed once.

"My troubles date back to when I was gassed in France, and I had never been able to get over the effects," continued Mr. Emblin, "and a short time after I got back over here my health went back on me, and I seemed to break down all at once, and had to quit work. My nerves were shattered, and I couldn't stand any kind of unexpected noise or sound, and I was so restless that I didn't get a night's rest or sleep for months. I had indigestion so bad that sometimes even the smell of things cooking would make me deeply sick at my stomach, and I was almost afraid to eat a thing for I knew if I did I was sure to be in misery afterwards. Gas would form so bad that it filled up my chest and gave me such awful pains that I would break out in cold sweats that would last for six or eight hours at one time, and I would get so weak that I couldn't stand on my feet, and I would have to lie down until the attacks passed over. I took all kinds of medicines and expensive treatments, but instead of getting better I was growing worse all the time, and I hardly knew what would have become of me if it hadn't been for a friend who came to me and told me about Tanlac.

"As long as I live I will never forget that friend for he knew what he was talking about when he told me to take Tanlac, and I had no more than started on it before I could tell that I had struck the right thing. I kept on taking Tanlac until now my muscles are hard, and I am so strong that I am in as fine physical condition as I was when I was under hard training in the army. My nerves are as steady as a clock, and I sleep so sound at night that I don't believe I turn over a single time. I can hardly get enough to eat, and no matter what is set before me I can eat it without the least trouble from indigestion or gas, and the cold sweats are a thing of the past. The last time I weighed I had gained seventeen pounds, but I have gained a lot since then, but I don't know just how much, and all the time I feel strong and healthy just like a man wants to feel. I am certainly thankful I got hold of Tanlac, and I will always say a good word for it whenever I get a chance."

MRS. TOM THUMB DIES IN STATES

Middleboro, Mass., Nov. 26.—Countess Primo Magri, known to the general public as Mrs. Tom Thumb, and one of the best known little people in the world, died at her home here yesterday after a long illness. She was seventy-seven years of age, and had traveled around the world several times under the management of the late P. T. Barnum. Countess Magri was the daughter of James S. and Hulda Bump.

Count Magri survives here.

SARAGOSSA SITUATION.

Saragossa, Spain, Nov. 25.—Via London, Nov. 26.—With troops occupying strategic points throughout the city as a protest against arrest and deportation to Barcelona of various labor leaders. It is said that if the men being detained are released the strikers will resume work tomorrow and there are indications the Government is disposed to liberate them.

TAXATION IN ITALY.

Rome, Nov. 26.—Legislation will be introduced in the Italian Parliament imposing a progressive tax of from ten to sixty per cent on war fortunes and from five to twenty-five per cent on all inherited estates exceeding 20,000 lire. Imports on luxuries also are projected. The issue of a national five per cent loan at 87.50 is pending.

A WINNIPEG DEATH.

Care and Responsibility.

THE responsibility attached to the preparing of a remedy for infants and children is undoubtedly greater than that imposed upon the manufacturer of remedies for adults whose system is sufficiently strong to counteract, for a time at least, any injurious drug. It is well to observe that Castoria is prepared today, as it has been for the past 40 years, under the personal supervision of Mr. Chas. H. Fletcher.

What have makers of imitations and substitutes at stake? What are their responsibilities? To whom are they answerable? They spring up today, scatter their nefarious wares broadcast, and disappear tomorrow.

Could each mother see the painstaking care with which the prescription for Fletcher's Castoria is prepared: could they read the innumerable testimonials from grateful mothers, they would never listen to the subtle pleadings and false arguments of those who would offer an imitation of, or substitute for, the tried and true Fletcher's Castoria.

A Word About Truth.

"Great is Truth, and mighty above all things." So says the Old Testament, yet it is equally true to-day. Truth shows no favors, fears no enemies.

From the inception of Fletcher's Castoria, Truth has been the watchword, and to the conscientious adherence to this motto in the preparation of Fletcher's Castoria as well as in its advertising is due the secret of its popular demand.

All imitations, all substitutes, all just-as-good preparations lack the element of Truth, lack the righteousness of being, lack all semblance even in the words of those who would deceive.

And you! Mothers, mothers with the fate of the World in your hands, can you be deceived? Certainly not.

Fletcher's Castoria is prepared for Infants and Children. It is distinctly a remedy for the little-ones. The BABY'S need for a medicine to take the place of Castor Oil, Paregoric and Soothing Syrup was the sole thought that led to its discovery. Never try to correct BABY'S troubles with a medicine that you would use for yourself.

MOTHERS SHOULD READ THE BOOKLET THAT IS AROUND EVERY BOTTLE OF FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

MINERS' CANDIDATE RETURNED.

In the Chester-le-Street constituency of Durham County John Lawson, a Laborite, has been elected to the British House of Commons by a majority over David Gilmour, a National Democratic candidate, of no less than 12,065 votes out of a total poll of 22,691.

The constituency has been represented by J. W. Taylor since the overthrow of the Balfour administration in 1906. Since that time Mr. Taylor has had but one challenge and that from a Conservative in the general election of 1910. His majority on that occasion was 5,793. At the last election he was returned unopposed, while the recent contest was occasioned by the acceptance of the former member of a "position of profit" under the Government, known, of course, as an application for the Chiltern Hundreds.

While Mr. Lawson's majority is double that of his predecessor there is nothing particularly unusual about the result. The constituency is wholly a mining district and its new representative was the nominee of the Durham Miners' Association and, like Mr. Taylor, is well and favorably known to Durham County Labor.

It is worthy of note, however, that the Chester-le-Street contest is the first seat to be captured by a miners' candidate since the Miners' Federation of Great Britain commenced its nationwide campaign in favor of nationalization. While, for the reasons named, the seat never was anything but a Labor stronghold, nationalization propagandists will, no doubt, seize upon the result as a useful argument.

One feature of the total poll is the small increase over the vote of 1910 when, minus the extended franchise, just under 20,000 votes were cast. Apparently the novelty of a "National Democratic" candidate was not sufficient inducement for the converted of Chester-le-Street to employ a particularly spirited canvass.

A GREAT SUFFRAGIST.

Neither Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst nor her works are strangers to Victoria. Her sex in British Columbia realizes the extent of its debt to her. No other woman in the world, perhaps, has done more for the emancipation of womanhood than "the woman with a message." During two decades she has shown a double-edged patriotism. For years before the dogs of war were let loose she defied the constitutional power of the British Government because of her loyalty to her sex, because she believed in the strength and justice of her cause. She endured personal suffering without complaint. There were times when she and her crusaders embittered a large section of public opinion against the cause she wished to succeed. Only British toleration and British sportsmanship could have condoned some of the methods employed. But Mrs. Pankhurst required no lessons in sportsmanship.

On August 4, 1914, her British instincts were paramount. She needed no invitation to call a truce until the menace of the empire's foe should have disappeared. Just as energetically as she had conducted her pilgrimages to Westminster and throughout the country she marshalled her forces against the common enemy. And if it required a world war to establish the rights of womanhood, to Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst will go ungrudgingly the laurel of victory in the cause to which she has given so much of her life. To-day, however, her triumphs are history. She comes to Victoria to-morrow to deal with a subject of vital importance to all the countries of the world which are suffering from a chronic attack of post-war indignation. Her subject, at the Royal Victoria Theatre to-morrow night is "Class Co-operation versus Class War." Her ripe experience should enable her to deal with a topic of this character, and it will be a great pity if the enterprise of the Women's Canadian Club in bringing Mrs. Pankhurst to Victoria is not rewarded by a packed house.

BURNING EGGS IN WINNIPEG.

Fifteen hundred crates of eggs were consigned to the Winnipeg City incinerator on Saturday last because they were unfit for human consumption. Without the facts it is not possible to refer to the case except in the most general terms. But to the average individual on this continent the meagre news item chronicling the incident will suggest a state of affairs in cold storage establishments in the Prairie Capital that may have duplicates elsewhere in Canada. Surely the Board of Commerce would survive under the additional evidence that ought to be obtained to show how many more storage eggs in Canada are reaching the age when their destination must be the incinerator. When a long-suffering public is paying $1.25 per dozen for Victoria fresh eggs the Winnipeg incident takes on a significance all its own.

ADRIATIC DISPUTE CLEARING?

Jugo-Slavia hardly can be expected to pocket her alarm as long as the Italian poet persists in ruling the roost at Fiume and adding to the novelty of the situation by announcing further contemplated coups. The Jugo-Slavs are just as impulsive as the subjects of King Victor and the failure on the part of the Allied Governments to convince D'Annunzio that he has no right to be in Fiume on terms of his own fashioning has caused them to point to their own peaceful attitude as a contrast to that of the poet and his followers. Indeed the Jugo-Slavs consider themselves quite capable of throwing D'Annunzio and his filibusters into the sea.

Although the situation gets more delicate every day there is no obvious reason to suppose for one moment that the Peace Conference would allow the thing to get out of hand. Latest advice, as a matter of fact, indicate the possibility of a compromise satisfactory to all parties, not excluding the poet invader. Conversations towards this end have taken place between British, French, Italian and Jugo-Slav representatives with fair prospect of a settlement. In the meantime Jugo-Slavia's peaceful attitude, as one Belgrade newspaper rightly describes it, may as well be continued for a few days more.

ANGELES OF THE "SEVENTY-FIVES."

According to a dispatch from El Paso, General Felipe Angeles was executed by a Carranza firing squad at Chihuahua City to-day following the findings of a courtmartial composed of four Carranza generals. The charge upon which he was arraigned and condemned was one of rebellion against the Mexican Government.

Civilization has a very direct interest in this extremely unhappy circumstance. It was General Angeles who brought the French 75-millimetre gun to perfection and made it one of the most effective pieces of artillery ordnance in the world. Thus, whatever significance may attach to his active opposition to the present system of Government in Mexico, the name of General Felipe Angeles always will be remembered among the military leaders of the Allied countries as that of a creative genius who delivered to them a weapon that did much to discount Germany's artillery supremacy during the early days of the war. How effective the French "75" actually was none better than the defeated German Generals knew.

It remains a melancholy fact, however, that an officer of the type of General Angeles should be called upon to meet death at the hands of virtual brigand authority. He was apparently first and last a soldier, his smiling countenance throughout the trial betokening the strength of conviction he was known to possess.

TREATY TERMS UNCHANGEABLE.

There is to be no deviation from the terms of the Peace Treaty in favor of German prisoners who are employed in the work of re-construction in Northern France. As President of the Peace Conference, Premier Clemenceau has made this decision perfectly clear in a note sent to the Chairman of the German delegation to Versailles. A semi-official statement issued in Berlin, however, affects a desire on the part of the German Government to live within its obligations and to raise no objection to the punishment of guilty persons. But it concludes with the reminder that it has made suggestions to the Allied Governments "which seem calculated to avoid inconveniences for both contracting parties."

Official Germany of to-day has learned nothing from the folly of its predecessors. It appears to believe that the war-torn people of Northern France already will have forgotten the years of German occupation and its horrors. In the words of Premier Clemenceau himself "the deepest sentiments of the human heart have been so cruelly injured that French public opinion cannot agree to grant the favor of your request." Nor does France owe anything to Germany except the full and complete fulfillment of all the provisions of the Treaty of Versailles. Let the task of repairing the ruined remains of Northern France act as an object lesson to such representatives of shattered Prussianism as may find themselves still in captivity. Meanwhile, the Allied Governments should be able to deal with the "inconveniences."

Now that the preamble of the Johnson Street bridge agreement has been shorn of its suggestion of one-sided interest in the general proposal it is to be hoped that complete ratification of its terms will follow by the end of the week.

At the Potsdam Garrison Church on Sunday morning General Ludendorff spoke of military training as an invigorating and moral education. And when he left the building he was given an ovation, with cheers for the former Kaiser by way of variation. There may come a time when even the last remnants of the old gang in Berlin will realize that in theory and in practice military training after the Potsdam pattern is "strengstens verboten."

In a speech before the Associated Boards of Trade of Ontario in Toronto the other day D. B. Hanna, President of the Canadian National Railways, said in reference to a remark of the C.P.R.'s President: "The C.P.R. is a great credit to Canada, because it is the biggest thing under the British Crown." But in a very few months' time it won't be No. 1; it will be No. 2. And that is where the shoe pinches." The people of Vancouver Island will not object to any Canadian National policy that would place this section of the people's road in a position commensurate with its present and potential importance.

AMERICAN CIGARETTES IN FRANCE.

(Manchester Guardian.)

The recent appearance in the French tobacco shops of American tobacco and cigarettes (the French Government having bought up a billion packets of cigarettes and several tons of tobacco which were surplus American army stock) should be welcomed with delight by most Frenchmen. The French cigarette-smoker is particularly fond of Virginian cigarettes, and smokes them in preference to the French makes, which he is generally forced to have on account of the tobacco industry being a State enterprise in France. Virginian cigarettes are rarely obtainable in the village debits de tabac, and when they are the price is prohibitive. But during the war plenty of English brands were to be had in an unobtrusive way. The soldiers' ration cigarettes—"Ruby Queen," "Red Hussar," "The Flag," and other special varieties—were not highly valued by the men, who could generally buy at the Expeditionary Force canteens the recognized brands that they smoked at home. Consequently the "ration" was either given away or used in bartering for other little commodities, and the French people never said "No" to an English cigarette.

DECISIONS TO BE MADE BY CABINET

Aid For Returned Soldiers and Canadian War-time Prohibition

Ottawa, Nov. 26.—At least half a dozen pressing and several more or less urgent problems await the return of Sir Robert Borden to the capital for consideration and settlement. The Premier will be home to-night, and the first of an important series of Cabinet meetings will be held to-morrow.

Two matters of such immediate urgency that they probably will be definitely dealt with before the end of the present week respect the plans for the handling of $40,000,000 voted by Parliament to relieve returned soldiers in need of aid during the winter months, and a declaration of the Government's policy in regard to war-time prohibition and other war-time Orders-in-Council in view of the fact that peace with Germany and Austria is expected to be formally declared at Paris next Monday.

Opinion Divided.
In official circles here opinion is divided as to whether or not the War Measures Act will cease to be effective on December 1, or not until peace has been declared with all the enemy countries. In this connection it is pointed out that the Government can at any time it desires repeal any Order-in-Council passed under the authority of the War Measures Act, and if it is decided that the Act does not cease to be effective on December 1 this course may be adopted in regard to some of them.

Tariff.
In view of the probability that Parliament will meet again within ten weeks the Government has to decide whether or not an effort is to be made to carry out immediately the promise of a general inquiry into business and industrial conditions as a preliminary to a revision of the tariff. Previous inquiries of this kind have occupied a period of several months.

Session.
The Government also must come to an early decision in regard to the calling of the next session of Parliament. The great majority of members have requested the Prime Minister to have the House meet in January or early February in order to avoid the session running into the summer months.

Naval Policy.
Matters of less pressing importance to be considered by the Cabinet include a permanent naval policy for the Dominion, the reorganization of the militia forces, shipbuilding, overseas trade, in regard to which Lloyd Harris, head of the Dominion Trade Mission in London, will make a report; Cabinet vacancies and by-elections and the appointment of a High Commissioner in London, in connection with which the name of Sir George Foster is prominently mentioned.

Vacancies.
There are two vacancies in the Commons, and if they are to be filled before the House meets the writs will have to be issued shortly, because it takes approximately forty days to prepare new voting lists. They are Temiskaming, where a United Farmer-Labor candidate already is in the field, and Kamouraska, Que. In Temiskaming the vacancy was caused by the death of Hon. Frank Cochrane, while Ernest Lapointe's resignation to contest Quebec East made a by-election necessary in Kamouraska.

that the institutes offered tremendous possibilities for the rural women of the Dominion, and that in them lay the nucleus of a vast organization, welding together in ties of mutual understanding and affection, the women of the whole Empire.

For the past five or six years Mrs. Blackwood-Wileman had made her home in the Duncan district, and for a long time her interests were practically confined to that area. Her deep interest in the community led to her election as president of the Cyprian Women's Institute, and under her capable regime the members achieved much good work. In addition to the consummation of a vast amount of patriotic endeavor, the Institute has the distinction, through Mrs. Blackwood-Wileman's instrumentality, of being one of the first to revive the old domestic crafts, the spinning wheel having been resuscitated and put to good use. Mrs. Blackwood-Wileman may also be said to have been the pioneer of the school consolidation movement. She worked untiringly to this end and lived to see the fruition of her efforts in the consolidation of the schools of the Cowichan district.

Appointed to Advisory Board
In May, 1917, Mrs. Blackwood-Wileman was appointed to represent Vancouver Island on the Advisory Board to the Institutes. Later she was elected chairman of the board, and in that capacity had been instrumental in organizing several new Institutes. Recently she founded the Institute at Denman Island, and had since been arranging to organize one at the soldier settlement community at Merville; these plans only awaiting the erection of a community hall in the settlement to bring them to maturity. She was recently elected

Twenty Per Cent.

"2.—That the margin or gross profit to the retailer on the pork products known as bacon and boned ham, either cooked or smoked, shall not exceed twenty per cent. of the sale price thereof, and that sales thereof at higher prices be deemed to be an unfair profit, provided, however, that when either of said products is sold sliced an additional charge of two cents a pound may be made for each slicing."

Twenty-five Per Cent.

"3. That unless, on or before January 1, 1920, this Board, by reason of representations made by anyone concerned, shall otherwise determine, the margin or gross profit of the retailer on all other pork products than those mentioned in the immediately preceding paragraph shall not exceed twenty-five per cent. of the sale price and that sales at higher prices shall be deemed to bear an unfair profit. All concerned, whether producers, distributors or consumers, shall have liberty to communicate to the Board not later than December 24, 1919, with reasons, their objections to the bringing into effect of this paragraph of the order.

WANT PUBLIC TO SHOW INTEREST

Child Welfare Exhibition Is Opened; Will Continue
Several Days

Audiences whose small numbers proved disappointing to the director and organizers in charge of the arrangements were in attendance at the National Child Welfare Exhibit, which opened at the First Congregational Church yesterday afternoon, and regret was expressed by the Rev. Hugh Dobson, the director, that Victoria should show so little interest in such a vital problem. Mayor Porter informally opening the exhibit at 3 o'clock expressed his pleasure at the steps being taken to educate the public in the matter of child conservation. He referred to his own interest in child welfare matters, as director of the Protestant Orphanage and President of the Children's Aid Society, and voiced the hope that the citizens would evince a close interest in the exhibit and its propaganda.

Safeguard the Child.

In the afternoon the chair was taken by Mrs. V. S. MacLachlan, who referred to the steady growth of the child welfare movement in all the civilized countries of the world. She urged upon Victoria the need of safeguarding the health of the children of to-day and through them the citizens of future generations.

"It will need all the health and education that present knowledge can give, for, if we are to judge by the disgraceful figures published of the result of our medical school inspection and the figures of the army draft, we are forced to admit that our children are not receiving any more than our soldiers received, the health that present knowledge makes possible. By making this our especial work, we, the men and women of the City of Victoria, can best prove our devotion to the principles of liberty," said the chairman.

Mrs. R. S. Day, convener of the programme committee, emphasized the importance of an organized effort to combat the awful wastage of infant life each year. She stated that as a definite outcome of the Child Welfare Exhibit it was hoped to form a branch of the Child Welfare Association of British Columbia on Friday afternoon, to which end they were starting a local membership campaign in charge of Miss Sarah Spencer and Miss Winn.

Housing Conditions.

The tremendous benefit that would accrue to the whole race from better housing conditions was pointed out by H. W. Hart, of the Provincial executive of the Great War Veterans' Association. Regulations were in force to ensure sanitary comfortable quarters for cattle yet many children had to spend their days in a squalor which inevitably led to low physique and low mentality. Such conditions as overcrowded tenements, with lack of air and light, generated social unrest and bred the agitator, and Canada as a new country should see to it that housing conditions were improved, urged Mr. Hart.

Pre-Natal Care.

Dr. Walter Bapty occupied the chair at the evening session, and spoke upon the subject, "Pre-Natal Care of the Mother." Observation of the fundamental laws of life, freedom from worry and drudgery, the best scientific care of physician and nurse should be secured.

"Mother and Child" was the theme of a stirring address by Dr. Ernest Hall. He emphasized the necessity of the proper training of the child by the parents, and declared that every boy and every girl should be instructed by their parents in sex matters. "Ignorance is not innocence, and no child should be allowed to grow up without a knowledge of himself or herself, and of the dangers that face him in later life," continued the speaker.

Social Diseases.

The effect on the child of social diseases and alcoholism in the parents was explained by Dr. Hall with the aid of a series of charts and illustrated slides taken from life. He was particularly emphatic in insisting that medically unfit persons should not marry. Rev. Hugh Dobson at the close of Dr. Hall's remarks, cited the work which had been undertaken by the government of Saskatchewan in establishing free clinics and free treatment for sufferers from the social diseases.

Between the sessions, a number of those present adjourned to the basement of the church, where the National Child Welfare exhibit is displayed. The exhibit is remarkably well-arranged and features panel-pictures and posters showing the pre-natal care of the mother and of the child at birth, and the progress of the child through the various stages of infancy, and childhood, with the various factors contributing to proper development. The exhibit is of immense educational value, and is well worth the attention of every parent and of every young person in the city.

IN WOMAN'S DOMAIN

Social Personal

G. G. McGeer, M. P. P., was in the city yesterday.

Lieut.-Col. L. W. Mulloy D. C. M., has been in the city in connection with the Repatriation League, with which he is associated. He has now returned to the Mainland.

At the meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Provincial Royal Jubilee Hospital yesterday afternoon plans were laid for a St. Valentine's ball to be held next February, in connection with which every endeavor will be made to raise as great a fund as possible for the assistance of the hospital work. The next meeting will be held on January 27, 1916.

Sir Arthur and Lady Currie and family left on this afternoon's boat for Vancouver en route for Ottawa, where General Currie will resume his active duties as Inspector-General of the Canadian Military Forces. Yesterday the citizens of Victoria, represented by a committee composed of Colonel the Hon. E. G. Prior, Mr. A. C. Flumerfelt and Mr. J. J. Shallocross presented Sir Arthur with a handsome silver-trimmed mahogany casket, filled with Victory bonds. The presentation took place at the general's suite in the Empress Hotel.

Yesterday at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. Mr. Hobbs, Comerford Street, the marriage took place of Miss Jenny Roger, daughter of Mrs. L. Roger, of Grafton Street, Esquimalt, to George Oliver, of Seattle. After a honeymoon trip in Vancouver, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver will make their home in Seattle. On Monday evening about twenty-five friends assembled at the home of Mrs. Roger to bid farewell to the bride-elect. A very pleasant evening was spent with music and dancing, after which the guests partook of a dainty repast. Miss Roger received many handsome presents, including a cheque from the manager of the City Dye Works, where she has been employed, and a silver carving set from her fellow workers.

EX-NURSE LEGISLATOR

MISS R. C. McADAMS, M. P. P. of Alberta, who has been appointed Director of the Homes branch of the Land Settlement Board of Alberta, a position corresponding to that held by Mrs. J. D. Gordon in British Columbia. Miss McAdams served as a nurse overseas and on her return from France was elected to the Alberta legislature.

WOULD COME HERE TO LIVE AND WORK

Robert G. Marsh, sanitary inspector, of Suva, Fiji, is anxious to come to Victoria to start dairying, according to information he has sent to the Victoria and Island Development Association.

"I intended to come to Vancouver from England before the war, but joined up when war broke out," he states. "I have had years of experience with poultry, and my wife is a good dairy woman. Last March I came out to Fiji and became sanitary inspector. I would like you to tell me if there is any chance land near the city or near a railway for dairying."

PUBLIC EVENT AT GOVERNMENT HOUSE

"The Dansant" Arranged For Saturday Afternoon; Musical Club Auspices

Considerable interest has been aroused by the announcement that a public "The Dansant" and musical event is to be held at Government House on Saturday afternoon, and members of the dancing set are looking forward with keen anticipation to the event, which promises to be most enjoyable. A number of the cadets of the Royal Naval College have announced their intention to be present. The affair is to be open to the public, and the arrangements are in the hands of the Victoria Ladies' Musical Club, which organization will be the beneficiary.

Lady Barnard, whose interest in musical matters is well-known, has kindly placed Government House at the disposal of the Club for the occasion, and it is hoped that the general public will show its appreciation by rallying to the support of the Club for the auspicious event. The affair will be held between the hours of three and six o'clock, and for the first hour a musical programme will be given to which Mrs. Robert Baird, Miss Marian Heming and Miss Mary Izard will contribute numbers. At the conclusion of the concert, tea will be served and dancing will take place to the strains of music furnished by Miss Thain's orchestra.

PROFIT ON PARIS GOWNS ENORMOUS

Countess-Seamstress Alleges Salons Make 700 Per Cent. on Gowns

Paris, Nov. 26.—A bombshell has been exploded in the ranks of the fashionable dressmakers by a beautiful and wealthy young woman who has spent a year incognito as a seamstress in the Rue de la Paix and who has just issued a manifesto over her own name, Baroness Lea Lemaire, appealing to the women of France and America to refuse to pay "extortionate" prices for gowns.

In an interview with the Universal Service to-day, the baroness said: "In the last establishment in which I worked, $10 worth of material skillfully cut and draped by a girl drawing a salary of $75 a month, hung with sequins costing $11 a thousand, sewed up by a tennement worker who was paid $6 for each garment, was sold to a wealthy New York buyer for $1,500."

"The dressmakers say that the high prices are enforced by the overhead, meaning soft lights, rich furniture, high rents and expensive advertising, but investigation has convinced me that fashionable dressmakers are swindling wealthy customers by a system under which their profits run up as high as 700 per cent. 'The government smiles, because 10 per cent. of the selling prices goes into its coffers as a luxury tax. Women should organize and resist such extortion.'

"We are all so busy with the higher education of women that we have apparently lost all sense of the value of training them to perform the duties which clearly are theirs to attend to."

WOMEN BOLSHEVISM'S NATURAL ENEMIES

Says Mrs. Pankhurst, Who Is to Lecture Here on Thursday

"Women are the natural antagonists of Bolshevism. This is a menace of terrorism that women must unite to fight," declared Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, England's most noted militant suffragist, to a press representative in Atlantic, U.S.A., recently.

According to Mrs. Pankhurst, and she was careful to emphasize her warning, there is real and grave danger of Bolshevism in the United States. The forces behind its spread and the insidious propaganda by which it is being conducted into the thoughts of American residents are the same as those responsible for the Bolshevistic horrors perpetrated in Russia, and the poisonous anarchistic influences projected into various countries during the war, she said.

There is a well-organized international conspiracy to substitute Bolshevism for government, she continued, and warned that the Bolshevists are going after the world through Russia.

The recent great railroad strike in Great Britain she named "the new form of strike," a political strike, she asserted, to gain control of the government under the guise of the usual striking demand "More Wages."

There is nothing in Mrs. Pankhurst's appearance to indicate the militancy in her views of suffrage for which she endured imprisonment a number of times in England, going on a "hunger strike" each time in protest. She is small of stature, mild of manner to an unusual degree, and speaks with a tone of gentle persuasiveness.

GIRLS SHOULD BE MADE TO LEARN DOMESTIC ARTS

Says English Writer Commenting on Growing Distaste For Housework

So much attention is being paid to the question of the establishment of technical schools in Victoria and the need for the proper training of girls in domestic duties, that the following observations made by a woman writer in the London Daily Chronicle, should be of timely appeal.

Distaste For Domesticity.

It has been observed that after four years' work on munitions women are returning to the industrial market hampered by a certain distaste for women's work. But one wonders whether women of this generation ever have possessed any real love of women's work.

Certainly nothing seems more distasteful to the women of all classes to-day than domesticity. This is what lies at the root of the servant difficulty, of which we hear so much; also of the mistress difficulty, which in comparison we hear so little; for the same fault is apparent in both cases.

Servants and mistresses are suffering from lack of training in the work which lies immediately before them.

We are all so busy with the higher education of women that we have apparently lost all sense of the value of training them to perform the duties which clearly are theirs to attend to.

Neglecting Domesticity.

The fact is we train our girls for everything save domesticity. Consequently we find expensively trained secretaries, teachers, masseuses, hospital nurses, governesses, dispensers, having to content themselves with getting what points they can at wages varying from £50 to £100 a year, in most cases without board and lodging, and fearful to throw up these posts, however distasteful they may be, because they know there are plenty of other competitors keenly anxious to take their places.

Meanwhile, servants in any capacity can practically dictate their own terms.

It is all a question of supply and demand. We have overstocked the supply of women who work with their heads, and have never given a thought to the education of those who work with their hands. In spite of the universal demand for well trained housewives and servants, the educational authorities have so far made no attempt to cope with the matter of training them.

Now that the education of girls is compulsory, why should it not be made compulsory that the two final years of their school time be devoted entirely to mastering the difficulties connected with domestic duties.

Two Years' Training.

If every girl in the land, whether she is destined to be a mistress or a servant, were compelled to devote two years of her youth to systematic domestic training, they would all learn their job of cooking, cleaning, mending, and making—and the care of their houses and children, just as they now have to learn their trade.

True, domestic training centres do exist in our midst, but they are far too expensive to appeal to the great class of working men's wives and housewives who have to look after their own homes and children.

All kinds of societies and funds have lately come into existence to train health visitors, infant welfare workers, and workers connected with mother-craft, so that they may teach mothers of the poorer classes. But surely it would be a far wiser and cheaper policy to make this training compulsory in every girl's school, and so train the mothers and housewives of the rising generation, instead of letting them loose, as we do now, to muddle through their home duties and employ other women to teach them to do what they could easily do for themselves.

ASSOCIATED DRESS INDUSTRIALISTS TO MEET

New York, Nov. 26.—Style will be the predominant factor for spring of next year in the women's dress industry, and with a bright outlook for big business, the dress manufacturers throughout the United States are now at work on plans for the new season, which promises to surpass those of previous years from a standpoint of expansion.

An announcement to this effect was made yesterday by the Associated Dress Industries of America, the national Chamber of Commerce of the dress industry, through its Executive Director, David N. Mozesohn, who points out that the designers of women's dresses both here and abroad have originated creations for the American women which promises to have a most appealing effect, and stimulate business to the satisfaction of all interests in the garment trade.

Mr. Mozesohn declares that the modes which will be introduced at Palm Beach and other southern resorts will represent the last word in American creative ability, so far as women's apparel is concerned, and embody the most luxurious fabrics that American mills have ever before produced.

"Prices are not coming down," Mr. Mozesohn stated, "and they cannot come down just so long as raw material and labor advance in cost, as

A Talk to Parents on Boys' Suits

BOYS cannot be tailored by slipshod methods these days. At least not the kind of boys who look to us for clothes. They want the fine tailored touches that their fathers' clothes have—the soft fronts, the closely scrolled collar, the shapely sleeves and lightly turned lapels.

FOR weeks we have been receiving shipment after shipment of suits for our Boys' Department—"tailored just as Father's are."

BRIEFLY, our boys' suits may be summed up as follows: Stylish, substantial, serviceable, extravagant in quality, economical in price and, we believe, the best clothes ever made for boys.

MAYOR HAS ANOTHER PLAN FOR STADIUM

Scheme Would Mean Little
Expense for City; No Land
Would Be Purchased

Mayor, Porter this morning examined plans for an athletic stadium behind the Empress Hotel submitted by the athletic organizations of the city through the medium of the Foundation Club. This plan differs from the schemes which were proposed by Aldermen Patrick and Harvey and which precipitated a lively debate in the City Council. The latest plan does not contemplate the purchase of any ground, and would entail very light expense as far as the city is concerned.

The plans submitted to the Mayor provide for a baseball diamond, football and lacrosse fields and a cricket pitch as well as accommodation for large crowds of spectators. The grandstands would be placed at the southwest corner of the property. The land across Belleville Street would not be purchased, as was proposed by Alderman Patrick, but some lots on Humboldt Street would be secured under a long term lease and would form part of the athletic field. The agent for this property, the owner of which is in England, is of the opinion that there would be no difficulty about getting a long lease.

The athletic organizations told the Mayor that all they required was that the city level the ground. They would see to the erection of grandstands and so forth. Indeed, they intimated further that, if necessary, they would call for volunteers among their number to undertake the work of levelling free of charge.

NEWS IN BRIEF

The Elks' Monthly Dance will be held in the clubroom as usual on Thursday, November 27. Dancing 8-1. Osard's orchestra. Those wishing invitations please phone secretary 655.

Chimney Fire.—A chimney fire at 141 Robertson Street required the attention of the Fire Department shortly after ten o'clock last night.

Fined For Having Liquor.—For having liquor in her rooms Miss M. Brooks, proprietress of the Waverley Rooms, Douglas Street, was fined $50 in the police court yesterday afternoon by Magistrate Jay.

Seek Missing Man.—Information with regard to the whereabouts of Lawrence Victor Monday is being sought by the provincial police on behalf of the young man's mother of 55, The Grove, Vauxhall, S. W. London, England. It is believed that he left Tofield, Alberta, at the beginning of this year, having worked with J. W. Sharpe in that place.

Given Engraved Locket.—Members of the Shipyard Riggers and Fasteners' Union at their meeting at Labor Hall, North Park Street, last night surprised their retiring secretary, N. Davis, by presenting him with an engraved locket. The presentation was made by D. McDonald, president of the organization.

Examine Printing Machine.—Examination of a patent machine for printing such notices as city by-laws was examined in the City Hall by civic officials to-day. The device, which would cost the city something under $400, would do away with large bills for printing and would avoid considerable delay when duplicates of documents are wanted. The officials were very much impressed by the demonstration of the machine's possibilities. Some fear is entertained, however, that the device will suffer the same fate as the elusive cash register which the Treasury Department desires, but which the City Council has decided is too expensive.

Presbyterian Forward Movement.—Rev. A. E. Munro, of Duncan, convener of the Presbyterian's Forward Movement Committee and a member of the committee of fifty appointed by the Presbyterian Church to prosecute the Forward Movement with the objective of securing 1,000 recruits for the ministry of the denomination and a fund commensurate with the needs and requirements of the work at home and abroad, will address a meeting at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Victoria West, to-night at 8.30. Elders, managers, Sunday school staff, and officers and members of all the church organizations with all others interested in the movement will meet in the lecture room.

SAANICH FARMERS IN ANNUAL MEETING

Agricultural Society Elects
Officers and Hears Encouraging Reports

The North and South Saanich Agricultural Society held its annual meeting in the hall at Saanichton on Monday evening. The attendance was the largest for many years past and the enthusiasm augurs well for the success of the coming year. K. H. Streetfield, the president, was in the chair.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, K. H. Streetfield; first vice-president, H. E. Tanner; second vice-president, E. Raper; secretary-treasurer, Colin H. Chisholm; directors elected were: E. Blackburn, J. W. Martindale, George Spencer, Mrs. F. Verrier, W. Mitchell, George Stewart, J. G. McLean, F. Turgoo, J. M. Malcolm, G. Clark, Mrs. Barker and Alex. McDonald, J. M. Hedley and W. Thomson were appointed auditors. It was moved that the patrons for 1919 be re-elected and on the resolution being carried, the following were declared patrons for 1920: J. C. McIntosh, M.P.; Hon. S. F. Toole, Minister of Agriculture; F. A. Pauline, M.P.P.; M. B. Jackson, M.P.P.; Mr. Justice Eberts and the Reeve of Saanich Municipality.

The report of the secretary contained reference to the recent deal, consummating the sale of the association's land known as the "race track." Mr. Martindale spoke on this matter, characterizing as "good business" the sale of the land, which had placed the society in a better financial position. In the past the strain on the resources had hampered progress, but with the augmenting of the funds by the sale of this property, it was hoped to be able to offer better prizes at the next fall fair and thus stimulate interest in the organization. He congratulated the directors on the deal.

During a discussion on the 1920 fall fair, it was suggested that the fair should be held prior to the annual Dominion fair to be held in Victoria, thus enabling Saanich exhibitors to send their produce to the Dominion fair should they so desire.

Capt. A. C. S. Trivett, who went overseas in combatant ranks and after being wounded went into the Y.M.C.A. work overseas and later became military secretary at Montreal, was the new secretary of Western Canada of the Student Department of the Y.M.C.A.

A BEDTIME STORY

UNCLE WIGGILY'S THANKSGIVING.

Copyright, 1919, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.
(By Howard R. Garis.)

"You can't come out here, Uncle Wiggily! You can't come out here!" cried Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzey, the muskrat lady housekeeper, as the bunny rabbit gentleman tried to open the kitchen door of the hollow stump bungalow one morning.

"Why can't I come out?" asked Uncle Wiggily, so surprised that his pink nose almost stopped twinkling. "Are you scrubbing the floor?"

"No, but I'm boiling and baking and stewing and frying and roasting and getting ready for to-morrow," answered Nurse Jane.

"What's to-morrow?" asked Uncle Wiggily, counting up on his whiskers. "Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday, to-morrow is Thanksgiving."

"To-morrow is Thanksgiving," interrupted Nurse Jane, "and though I do not want to be impolite, I really cannot have you in my kitchen to-day."

"All right," said Uncle Wiggily, resigned like and conciliatory. "Then I'll go off in the woods and have an adventure. That will give me a good appetite for my Thanksgiving dinner."

"Very well," answered the muskrat lady housekeeper, and she kept on boiling, frying, baking, roasting and stewing, for she knew Uncle Wiggily would be very hungry.

As for the bunny gentleman, he kept on hopping over the woods and through the fields, until pretty soon he came to a place where he found some chestnuts. There were not many, as Johnnie and Billie Bishy-bashy, the squirrel boys, had gathered them nearly all up.

"But there are enough for Nurse Jane to make a chestnut shortcake with," thought Uncle Wiggily. "And a chestnut shortcake will be just fine for Thanksgiving."

He was gathering up the nuts, which Jack Frost had cracked out of the prickly burrs, when, all at once, the bunny rabbit gentleman heard a rustling in the bushes behind him, and before he could jump out of the way, the Pipsissewah sprang out head over heels, and grabbed Uncle Wiggily.

"Let me go! Oh, please let me go!" begged Mr. Longears, but the Pip had him by the ears and would not loosen his claws.

"I'm not going to let you go," spoke the bad chap, "I have tried too hard to catch you to let you go now. I am going to take you off to my den."

"And bite source off my ears for your Thanksgiving dinner, I suppose," said Uncle Wiggily.

"Don't know anything about Thanksgiving—I never heard of that," said the Pipsissewah, but I am certainly going to bite source off your ears! Now come along with me!" and he began to drag Uncle Wiggily along over the hard, frozen ground.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

Eighty-five per cent. of the failures recorded last year in Dun's were of non-advertisers, Morgan Eastman told the Vancouver Retail Merchants on Monday. Coming to the question of who pays for the advertising, he said that the manufacturer or the merchant did not pay and the consumer did not pay; the advertising takes care of itself from the increased volume of business it brings and the consequent economy in selling costs which an increased volume of business always brings about.

"If a man in business to-day has got the goods," Mr. Eastman said, "he must advertise if he is going to reap success."

"Some merchants are inclined to take the attitude that they can get along and conduct their business without advertising. If you have the goods to offer to the public, if you have the proper premises and give good service, you will ultimately be successful without advertising, but it will take you from ten to fifteen years to accomplish in this manner what you would do in three years by the aid of properly planned advertising," he added.

JUNIOR PUCKCHASERS STAGE DRAWN BATTLE

One of the most exciting junior hockey games played for some time was staged at the arena last night. From the time the puck was faced until time was called the Supers and Wards battled hard, the game ending in a draw game of two goals each. Finchback, Temple and Mowat were the stars of the game, Temple shooting the two goals. Goalsie Coleman stopped some hot ones.

To Avoid Rough, Coarse, Chapped, Blotchy Skin

Most skins require constant grooming at this season to keep them from becoming unduly red, blotchy, coarse, rough or harsh, or if such condition has developed to overcome it. In such cases it is particularly inadvisable to keep plugging on cosmetics which clog the pores and make the complexion worse than ever.

It is more sensible to use ordinary mercolized wax, which literally absorbs a spoiled complexion. Apply the wax, like cold cream, before retiring. Next morning, in washing it off, you'll wash away fine, flour-like particles of dirt and make the complexion worse than ever.

FUEL FUTURE OF PEACE RIVER DISTRICT

Imperial Oil Directors Greatly
Impressed With Oil
Prospects

Confident that the discovery of petroleum is highly profitable quantities in the Peace River field is merely a matter of time, L. E. Bell, has reached Saskatoon after spending two years in the Peace River country.

"When I first went to Peace River," said Mr. Bell, "I was not interested in the oil proposition. I knew it was a mighty fine ranching country, and I thought I would start a ranch. But the oil possibilities struck me; I was impressed as one can only be when he visits the wells and studies the country."

"There is oil to-day in every well in the district. No Government tests have been made—probably because the companies want to make the big strike. I am absolutely certain that one of the wells is a thirty-barrel well, but naturally there is little desire to advertise the field as one which gives only thirty-barrel wells."

Faith in Field.
"One practical driller, who has put down wells in Russia, Persia, Mexico and Texas, tells me that he has the utmost confidence in the field, and that it will be a heavier producer than the Texas field. Time and patience are required in drilling out a field, but there are some indications which the practical oil man will stake his life on. The first is heavy wet or gasoline gas; the second is pockets of oil at fairly shallow levels; and the third a succession of close grained, impervious rocks which act as a seal for the main body of oil. The discovery of all these indications in Peace River at a depth of less than one thousand feet indicates vast pools of oil at a somewhat lower level."

"As a matter of fact, I have been informed that one of the most eminent American oil geologists, recently examined the field, and expressed the opinion that the pockets of oil so far encountered are seepages from large bodies of petroleum which lie in the Devonian rocks below. Drilling operations now date back three years; there has been much bad luck and delay, but in the opinion of the men who have the most information and are best able to judge, the field is bound to be a winner."

Mr. Stillman's View.
Charles O. Stillman, president of the Imperial Oil Co., and a party of Imperial Oil directors, who were on the coast recently, travelled back by the Peace River route.

What the production of oil would mean to Western Canada was spoken of by Mr. Stillman, who said: "In the event of such a field as the Buckburnett, Texas, field being struck in Northern Alberta, the population of that province would double within the year, and the advantages to Western Canada as a whole would be incalculable."

"Canada is spending seventy millions a year for coal from the United States; and is importing practically all her oil. Oil in the farming business and every other Western in-

DECORATED TO-DAY

Major Carew Martin, M.C.

This morning at his office in the Parliament Buildings, His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor presented on behalf of His Majesty the King the Order of the Royal Red Cross (first class) to Nursing Sister T. Blomquist, C.A.M.C., and also, on behalf of the Italian Government, presented Major Carew Martin with the Italian Silver Medal for valor in the field. Major R. G. Maxwell, District Record Officer, was in attendance and introduced the recipients to His Honor.

Industry is absolutely essential to success; the effect of discovering a plentiful Canadian supply would have a tremendous effect on Canada's trade balance.

Satisfactory Progress.
"The petroleum development situation in Western Canada is progressing satisfactorily," continued Mr. Stillman. "What we had hoped to do when we started in, was first of all to get a thorough geological survey of the province of Alberta, and to follow this up as quickly as possible with drilling operations. We have five rigs in place, three of which are working very satisfactorily, and we have more to come. We have spent quite a large amount of money in this development work, but consider that we have got very fair encouragement from the results of our researches, and we are prepared to go along next year with an enlarged programme."

"The real purpose of our tour in this part of the country was to see for ourselves some of the things which C. E. Taylor, our geologist, had mentioned in his reports. The company's geologists have been working in the country south of Cardston, on the Mackenzie River, on the Athabasca, in the Peace River block, and in eastern Alberta and Western Saskatchewan. The work cannot be done rapidly for each expert must personally go up creeks and rivers. The details are the essential parts of the examinations, and all the work is done on foot. The work undertaken by the company is really only started."

SPECIAL TOURS TO CALIFORNIA

Special Trains For Canadian Tourists Are Arranged by Faulds Travel Bureau

FAULDS FINANCIAL & TRAVEL BUREAU, LIMITED, have made arrangements to run two special trains from Vancouver to Los Angeles. These trains will leave the Great Northern station, Vancouver, at 11.45 p.m. on Tuesday, December 16, and Wednesday, January 7. The trip will be made over the Lines of the Great Northern Railway to Portland, Oregon, thence by the Southern Pacific, "The Road of a Thousand Wonders." The tickets will be good for final return limit until April 30, 1920; the cost being $150 round trip from Vancouver to Los Angeles and return, which includes every expense on the going trip, viz.: berth, side trips, meals and entertainment. It will be an excursion "de luxe," in a special train of modern pullman, electric-lighted sleepers, observation, buffet and dining cars, elegantly equipped, to the land of Summer in Winter.

A trip of unequalled scenic beauty through the fertile valleys of Oregon, over the Siskiyou Range, the upper source of the Sacramento, to Shasta Springs at the base of Mt. Shasta, from whence comes the name "Route of the Shasta Limited," down the Sacramento Valley to San Francisco, that picturesque wonder city; along the rolling foothills of the Santa Clara Valley to Stanford University and San Jose; to Monterey, with its historic traditions; to Hotel Del Monte, that famous, romantic caravansary where, by the ocean's edge world travelers find recreation and rest; to the big trees near Santa Cruz; to Santa Barbara and its historic mission—thence to the journey's destination, Los Angeles, that remarkable city whose climate is famed throughout the world. From here will be taken numerous side trips to Redlands, Riverside, via "The Orange Belt Route" to the orange groves and many charming places as well as to points along the entire line.

No crossing will be permitted so it is very important that reservations be made as soon as possible, especially for the first train leaving Vancouver December 16, and more especially as each train will be limited to not more than 150 passengers.

Full and complete information in regard to various side trips, hotel accommodations and sight-seeing tours en route, together with complete itineraries can be secured from Faulds Financial & Travel Bureau, Limited, 626 Hastings Street West, Vancouver, B. C., or W. R. Dale, 918 Government Street, Victoria, B. C.

The trains will be personally conducted by one of the Company's capable Representatives, so that passengers will have no trouble either in regard to baggage, sleeping car reservations and hotel accommodation on the entire trip.

The former special train run January, 1914, proved so popular with the people of British Columbia, that after various requests have been made the Company decided to make similar arrangements for these special trains this winter with the above result.

FOUNDATION CLUB
BIG BALL TO-NIGHT
First Annual Event; Will Celebrate French Contract Completion.

Completion of the contract for the French ships built by the Foundation Company's shipyards will be fittingly celebrated by a big ball to be held at the Foundation Clubhouse to-night. It will be the first annual ball given by the directors of the company, and a large representation of those associated with the contracts is expected.

The clubhouse has been especially decorated for the occasion, and presents a very attractive appearance. Orchestral eight-piece orchestra will furnish the music for the dance programme, which will commence at 9, continuing until 1 o'clock, and the arrangements for the buffet supper are in the hands of prominent caterers.

Admission to the ball will be by invitation only, and the individual cards will be exchanged at the door for admission tickets.

The programme of dance numbers is given herewith as follows:

Programme.
Waltz....."In the Heart of a Rose"
One-Step....."Mammy of Mine"

Salute the Ham and---

Think of All the Misguided Dyspeptics Who Refuse the Good Things to Eat for Fear of Indigestion. No Trouble Like That if you Follow Meals With Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Lay a slice of broiled ham on a white plate with a couple of nicely fried eggs and there you have a picture. Salute the autocrat of the breakfast table. But you say, I can't eat ham and— they don't agree. This is the sort prejudice a host of people have against many of the most tempting dishes, people who have just as much trouble with a glass of milk or oatmeal as they do with fried onions. Try eating what you like and follow your meal with a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet to relieve possible gasiness, rumblings, drowsiness, sour risings, heartburn, water brash, and the "stuffy" feeling after eating. These Tablets contain harmless ingredients that act with an alkaline effect just as the stomach does when it is perfectly normal. Many physicians prescribe them for indigestion, dyspepsia and other digestive disorders, as they are sold in all drug stores everywhere in the United States and Canada. The druggist recommends them as among his steady staples for they really give relief and are highly appreciated.

BIBLE SOCIETY HAS SCRIPTURE ISSUED IN 517 LANGUAGES

The 115th annual report of the British and Foreign Bible Society has recently been issued. During 1918 a total of 8,750,000 books were issued, 1,500,000 were in English; 1,250,000 were circulated in India; 800,000 in Japan and Korea, and 3,000,000 in China.

Since 1914, the report states, more than 5,000,000 volumes in 80 different languages were distributed among combatants, prisoners of war, refugees and members of labor battalions. The society, during its history, has promoted the circulation of the Scriptures in 517 different languages.

Committees are constantly at work, it is stated, to improve the versions of the Scriptures in circulation. In China committees consisting of Chinese students and foreign missionaries have been at work for 23 years, and have now completed the revision of the Bible in Wenli for the educated classes and in Mandarin for the whole Chinese-speaking people.

The highest of any year, and it is anticipated, that owing to post-war conditions as to cost of commodities and labor, there will still be need for larger income in the future.

Jobbers to Convene.—The jobbers' section of the Board of Trade will meet on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock to discuss several important matters.

Can You Beat It?—Ford plain tires, $14.75. Goodyear. Tyre Shop.

Imperial Veterans Meet.—A meeting of the Imperial Forces Club was held in the Central Building last night, and much gratification was expressed over the raising of the Imperial scale of disability pension and according hospital and vocational training privileges to Imperial servicemen on the same basis as members of the Canadian Expeditionary Force. The Veterans, however, were dissatisfied over the high exchange rate charged on their cheques received from England.

Team Ran Away.—A team of the Victoria Livery ran away on View Street yesterday afternoon. Its mad rush was stopped through a collision with a motor car standing outside the Shell Garage on View Street. One of the horses was instantly killed when its head struck the front of the motor. The team became started while standing at the corner of View and Broad Streets. Many pedestrians were on the street at the time but managed to escape the runaway. A runaway is a most unusual sight on the streets of Victoria now.

Many Gifts For Sailors.—The Victoria Branch of the Navy League of Canada wishes to thank Mr. Fry, Mr. Greenhalgh, Mrs. Lauderdale and Miss Myers for the apples, pears and other fruit and goods so very kindly sent to the Royal Naval Institute (Sailors' Club), for the use of the visiting sailors, as well as for the large number of books and magazines sent by so many kind friends. Also for the thirty pairs of socks and cigarettes sent by the Campbell's Young Ladies' Patriotic Club; also for the remarkably fine present of shirts, socks, flannellets and mufflers sent to the Institute by the I. O. D. E. from Ladysmith, all of which is hereby very gratefully acknowledged.

A.Y.P.A. and Forward Movement.—A special gathering of young people is planned for to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock in Christ Church Cathedral schoolroom under the auspices of the Cathedral branch of the Anglican Young People's Association. The occasion, besides being the regular meeting night for members of the association, is used to extend an open invitation to all young people, and the programme, which includes music and addresses, has been drawn up to introduce the claims of the church's Forward Movement. Mrs. Godson and David Hughes appear in the list of contributors to the musical programme, and special topics for addresses have been assigned to George Bushby, A. R. Merrix and Dean Quinlan.

COLD WAVE HERE

Frost Last Night Is Accompanied With High Barometer Reading.

Seven degrees of frost were reported on the ground at Gonzales Heights Observatory last night, thus justifying the announcement made yesterday that Victoria was in for a cold spell. The register showed 29.8 degrees on the thermometer in the standard position, and twenty-five degrees on the ground. There was a quarter of an inch of ice on the lower levels.

Victoria was less cold last evening than Vancouver, the report there showing twenty-four degrees. It was twelve degrees above at Kamloops, and ten below at Barkerville. On the prairies the figures range between ten and twenty-eight degrees below the zero mark.

Accompanying the cold wave is an abnormally high barometer. Calgary reports 30.94, while the reading in Victoria this morning was 30.65.

It may be anticipated that the cold spell will last during the next few days.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured by B.B.B.

Rheumatism is a constitutional disease, caused by the uric acid in the blood. It manifests itself by pain and lameness attacking the muscles and joints of the body, which often swell and become hot and inflamed. Anyone who has suffered month after month, and perhaps year after year, with rheumatism, and who has tried remedy after remedy in the hope of relief, and without success, should not give up hope.

Burdock Blood Bitters, by invigorating the digestive organs and eliminating the uric acid from the system, will give prompt and permanent relief. Mrs. D. Barry, Purbrook, Ont., writes: "I feel it my duty to let you know of the great benefit my husband derived from using your Burdock Blood Bitters. I, too, have been suffering for the past two years with inflammatory rheumatism. He tried many medicines but got no better. A friend advised him to take B. B. B. He did so, and after taking five bottles he felt like a new man, and was able to go to work the same as ever."

Burdock Blood Bitters has been on the market for over 40 years. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

The Kent Hotel Bar is now under new management.

Power Cut Off.—As the result of a short circuit on one of the high tension wires near the power house about 7 o'clock last night, half the city was plunged into darkness for several minutes.

WANT ART DUNCAN TO LEAD TORONTO

National League Anxious For Services of Pacific Coast
Star

Toronto, Nov. 25.—Charlie Querrie, representing the Arena N. H. L. and Art Duncan, the Pacific Coast star, held a meeting to-day relative to the latter taking over the reins of control. The terms of transfer were favorable to both, but nothing definite can be accomplished until it becomes known whether the Pacific Coast Hockey League will trade Duncan for Skinner. Vancouver is counting on Duncan to play defence and Skinner centre and may not care to let the former go. The president, Frank Calder, at the request of the Arena club, has wired to Frank Patrick relative to the proposed trade. In case Duncan is unable to take over the management of the team, Frank Heffernan, the defence star, will be offered the position. Heffernan, who is barred from competition in the O. H. A., has been made a flattering offer by the local club.

BILLIARD MATCHES IN BROAD ST. TILT

Australian Star Leads Side to 150 Victory; To-night's Game

Accompanying the cold wave is in the league games being played on Broad Street billiard tables, and as the schedule progresses a hard fight for top position is assured. Some of the crack players of the city are included in the teams taking part in the competition, and they have been evenly distributed among the different teams. Close exciting matches have featured most of the encounters. Orchard, the returned soldier and former Australian star, who took part in last winter's handiaps, is leading a team and secured a victory by 150 points in the last game in which his team was engaged. Orchard is minus one leg and otherwise badly injured, but still plays with flashes of his former brilliance. Owens is also playing an excellent game. League matches played this week were:

E. Newman's team	beat	Snell's team	by 105 points.
Snell	248	E. Newman	300
Burtholme	210	Copas	250
E. Fox	150	Simpson	117
Wilkinson	131	Flinton	150
H. Featherstone	123	Ferguson	150

Orchard's team	beat	Penketh's team	by over 150 points with one game yet to play.
Buckett's team	beat	Gardiner's team	by 121 points.
Buckett	274	Robinson	300
Woods	250	Duggan	144
Radbourne	150	Gardiner	123
Rogers	150	J. Ward	92
Booth	108	G. Ward	150

DEMPSEY LOOKS LIKE SETTING PURSE RECORD

New York, Nov. 26.—The programme for a world's championship heavyweight battle at New Orleans next St. Patrick's Day is slightly incomplete on the present returns. Only one of the contestants has signed up. While the date seems appropriate and all that sort of thing, Jack Dempsey will not decide anything internationally by boxing with himself.

Undoubtedly there will be a Dempsey-Beckett bout somewhere and some time, but it is pretty early in the game to order reservations for New Orleans. While the $125,000 which Dominick Tortorich, of New Orleans, is said to have guaranteed Dempsey, tops everything ever paid to a boxer, there are other promoters who might go higher still.

OUTFIELDER DEAD.

A special meeting of the G. W. V. A. Association Football Club has been called for this evening at eight, when players, officials and all interested in the welfare of the football club are asked to attend.

COLLEGIANS PRANK MAY SEVER RELATIONSHIPS

Stanford University, Cal., Nov. 26.—Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, president of Stanford University, has severed intercollegiate athletic relations with the University of California for one year, W. I. Ames, graduate manager of athletics here, said he had been advised yesterday. Ames said he understood the break is effective at once.

The reason for the severance was given by Dr. Wilbur as a violation on the part of Stanford University of an agreement between the two universities that the campus of neither shall be invaded by the other as a result of athletic or other rivalry. Thursday night a number of Stanford men were said to have painted their college colors at certain points on the University of California campus as a prelude to the big football game between the two institutions Saturday. California University as the aggrieved principal either may accept such suspension of relations or may request that the matter be forgotten and the suspension waived, according to members of the faculty.

STABLE BOYS LOSE.

London, Nov. 25.—The stable boys at the Epsom race course, who have been on strike for increased pay, returned to work to-day without their demands having been granted. The boys asked for a minimum of fifty shillings weekly, with ten shillings daily for expenses while attending race meets at distant tracks.

FINE FIGHTERS FOR STALLING IN RING

Negro Heavyweights Taxed
$500; McCormick and Farmer Draw

Duluth, Minn., Nov. 25.—Sam Langford, Boston negro heavyweight, and Jack Thompson, Philadelphia negro, whose fight here last night was stopped by the referee because the men "stalled" were fined $500 each by a representative of the Minnesota Boxing Commission to-night. The money will be turned over to two orphan homes here.

Portland, Ore., Nov. 25.—Frank Farmer, Tacoma, and "Boy" McCormick heralded as champion light heavyweight of England, fought ten rounds to a draw at Milwaukee, a Portland suburb here to-night. Farmer led in the earlier rounds but McCormick evened things in the final rounds.

Bill Wright, Seattle, and Scotty Williams, Chicago negro, welterweights, and Stanley Willis, Portland, and Harry Casey, Seattle, lightweights, fought draws.

Bud Ridley, Seattle, bantamweight, knocked out Bernie Dillon, of Aberdeen, Wash. in the second round.

Los Angeles, Nov. 25.—Frankie Haynie, welterweight, won a decision over George Slade after four rounds of fast fighting here to-night.

Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 25.—Cal Delaney, Cleveland lightweight, won the newspaper decision over Johnny Noye, of Minneapolis in a ten-round contest to-night. The bell saved Noye in the final round.

FINAL IN TWO JACKS BILLIARD HANDICAP

J. Murray (650) defeated G. Lovitt (225) in the final of the Two Jacks Billiard Handicap last night. This makes the list of the first eight players in the handicap as follows: J. Murray, G. Lovitt, H. Wilkinson, W. Hall, J. Hiberson, G. J. Creedon, F. H. A. Norton and A. Hinson. Hall wins the high break in proportion to handicap with a thirty-seven. Entries are now open for a turkey handicap.

FIFTEEN FOR FIRST INTER-CITY BATTLE

Eight Wanderers, Four V. I. A. Men and Three Bays Will Take Field

With five men taken out of the side originally selected, the selection committee has presented another fifteen as the representative side to take the field against Vancouver in the first of the inter-city battles at Oak Bay Saturday. The new line-up is as follows:

Fullback, Williams, Wanderers; three-quarters, D. M. Grant, Wanderers, S. Gillespie, Wanderers, E. Gillespie, Wanderers and J. Matson V. I. A. A.; half-backs, C. C. Grant, Wanderers and McIlvride, J. B. A. A.; forwards, Penderay, G. V. A. Ackland, Robinson and McCallum, Wanderers, McKee and Clark, V. I. A. A. and Travis and Sanson, J. B. A. A. Reserves: Fullback, Johnson, J. B. A. A.; three-quarters, Bendrodt, J. B. A. A., and B. Wilson, V. I. A. A.; half-back, Grubb, V. I. A. A.; forwards, Norris, J. B. A. A., Wilson, Wanderers, and Lewis, V. I. A. A.

In the first selection the James Bay players did not catch a place in the side, but three of the Bay players are included in the new choice. Eight Wanderers and four of the V. I. A. A. players complete the aggregation. As was to be expected the selection committee has found it impossible to choose a team to give general satisfaction. Such an almost impossible task was probably never yet accomplished and there are among the Victoria Rugby men several who have complaints to offer. Last Saturday's game, it has been declared, was in the nature of a game between the best thirty men, although opinions vary on this point, and the selection some of the Rugby fans declare should have been made from players who figured in that game. Others are doubtful whether the forwards will be able to last the pace against the fast young pack that reports from the Mainland indicate that Vancouver will send over.

Several fans have presented their

LOOKING THINGS OVER

The Whitewash Brush.

Reports from Calgary regarding the wholesale application of the whitewash brush to professionals, who plainly have no other claim to amateur cards than the fact that they have sworn to stay with the amateur game for the rest of their lives, take the stand that Calgary is setting an example to the Dominion. It is hard to understand how the Calgary sportsmen arrive at this understanding. The most trusting individual will come to the conclusion that men who can make as much playing hockey for a few months of the year as they would probably make working at ordinary occupations for twelve months, will jump from the Coast to Alberta or Saskatchewan, severing their business connections on the Coast, to play as simon pure amateurs in either province. Whatever their inclinations, and there is no reason to believe that the amateur game has any magnetic attractions for a man who can hold up his end in professional company, they probably could not afford to do so.

Abuse of Power.

The action of the Alberta Union certainly looks like an abuse of the power granted at the recent Amateur Athletic Union of Canada conference. Amateurs do not make tracks to any particular place as they have done to the two provinces mentioned to play for any club without some financial inducement, and these men, who used to grace the professional company, are no exception to the rule. Unofficial information from Winnipeg would indicate that the kalsomined players will not be recognized as amateurs, and Dave Leith is of the opinion that the same action will be taken in British Columbia.

"British Columbia Amateur Athletic Union officials are I believe I am safe in saying, surprised and disappointed at the action of Alberta governors in granting reinstatement to all professional athletes who filed applications," he says, "and further, I believe that the next meeting, which will be held the latter part of December, the British Columbia executive will take official steps to ignore all cards issued by Alberta, which will practically mean that that province will be isolated so far as amateur competition with other provinces is concerned."

Acquisition to Tennis.

British Columbia tennis players will welcome the acquisition to their ranks of St. L. K. Verley and Mrs. Verley, of Winnipeg, who will take up their residence in Vancouver and will probably appear in the tournaments in Victoria and Vancouver during next season. It is not that Verley has won many championships locally, in singles, in fact, for a man who has so consistently reached the semi-final and final rounds, his championships are surprisingly few, but it is for his attractive style that he is such a favorite with the spectators. Verley is a good loser and a graceful winner, and his bearing on the courts in tournament play is always such that his departure from Winnipeg is to local tennis a decided loss. Verley, for a number of years has occupied a leading place among the "squash tennis" players of Winnipeg, where he has shared with Ken Patton the topmost rung of the ladder in this great game. In Mrs. Verley, Winnipeg also loses one of the very best lady players the city ever produced. In 1918 Mrs. Verley won the ladies' singles and mixed doubles championships and lost in the finals of the ladies' doubles.

idea of a representative team one of which is as follows:
Fullback, Boss Johnson; three-quarters, J. Matson, S. Gillespie, G. C. Grant, Bendrodt; Halves, McIlvride, Grubb; forwards, Penderay, McKee, Clark, Lewis, Travis, Sanson, Norris and Robinson.

K. O. IN THE SECOND.

Halifax, Nov. 25.—The boxing bout scheduled for fifteen rounds between Roddy McDonald, of Glace Bay, and Spike Sullivan, of Montreal, to-night ended in the second round when McDonald knocked out the Montrealer.

thur Manson, tendered his resignation at last night's meeting of the Victoria and District Soccer League. Five of the delegates voted to accept Mr. Hadley's resignation and five against and Vice-President Mascher gave his casting vote against allowing Mr. Hadley to retire from the office. The president, however, stood pat and declared that he would not continue in office, and his resignation was accepted with regret.

Next Saturday's games were drawn up as follows:

Senior League.

Great War Veterans vs. Army and Navy, at Work Point. Referee, Jones. Comrades vs. K. of C. Hut, Jubilee Hospital. Referee, Locke.

Yarrows vs. Wests, Beacon Hill upper ground. Referee, Pearson.

Wards vs. Foundation, Central Park. Referee, Duggan.

Harbor Marine vs. bye.

Intermediate.

Wests vs. Yarrows, Beacon Hill lower ground. Referee, Horan.

Army and Navy vs. Veterans, Royal Athletic Park. Referee, Oliver.

Flemmen vs. Saanich Rovers. Referee, Stokes.

Post Office vs. bye.

Reversal Decision.

A letter was received from the British Columbia Football Association, reversing a decision of the president in regard to the game of North Wards vs. Foundation of the fixture card of the opening games. Neither side put in an appearance, and the president gave a ruling that the North Wards were at fault, and awarded the points to the shipbuilders. The B.C.F.A. ordered that the game should be played at a future date.

Transfers.

Kerr, of the G.W.V.A., was transferred to the North Wards. Allan, of the G.W.V.A., was also transferred to the Wards. Ledingham goes from the Wests intermediate to the Metropolis, and Saunders from Yarrows intermediates to the Army and Navy intermediates.

The newly-formed B.C.F.A. was discussed, and the prospects of the Victoria and District League joining the new organization were reported as favorable. It was decided, however, that a committee should first secure a constitution of the new body before definite action was taken.

The Army and Navy Football Club members are asked to meet at 216 Pemberton Building Friday evening. The meeting will be called to order at 8.15 sharp. Business of importance will be discussed, and members of both the senior and intermediate teams are asked to be present. It is anticipated that the senior league team will be strengthened in several places during the next two weeks. The intermediate team will be strengthened for Saturday's encounter with the Astoropolis, although they will be without the services of Quainton, who will be away from the city for the week-end.

SAYS CLERGY DO NOT THINK OF LAY NEEDS

Too Great Confusion in Minds of Ministers, According to Dr. Perkins.

Ministers fall down because they do not put themselves in the place of the layman and imagine his needs, but instead pour on to him sermons on all sorts of matter that is of no service to him, according to the Rev. John Carroll Perkins, D.D., of Seattle, who spoke at the First Unitarian Church last night. With Mrs. Perkins he is on his way home from attending the General Conference of Unitarian Churches of Canada and the United States at Baltimore, at which representatives from England were present.

The trouble with a lot of your ministers is that they usually read the newspaper headlines in the morning and carry the confusion that is there through the day with them," said Dr. Perkins.

"Ministers should go into their church two or three times a week and sit down and imagine they were laymen, and sitting there in the pew, work out for themselves what the layman needs. It is a practical question of church life and religion."

Hit-or-Miss Services.
"Too many of our church services are only hit-or-miss. You must think out what is your purpose in your religious service and how do the details of the service help you to carry out that purpose."

Dr. Perkins went into many of the details of the Baltimore conference which was presided over by ex-President Taft, now a professor of Yale.

Mrs. Perkins gave her impressions of the conference, explaining that it marked the centenary of Unitarianism, which was the keynote to the great liberal religious movement of one hundred years ago. She told of how the value of congregational singing was emphasized at the conference.

The musical director of Harvard, who lectured, declared that congregational singing was of more inspirational value than the highest-priced church quartettes.

Men Attend Church.

The large number of men present at the Baltimore conference impressed Mrs. Perkins, who said that a larger percentage of men attending services seemed to be the case in all the Unitarian churches throughout the country. She spoke of the necessity of stressing the positive in religion and discouraging the bringing forward of the negative of the time. "It seems to me that one of the most significant features of that conference was the feeling of optimism," Mrs. Perkins went on. "The people back there were much interested in the way the churches in Victoria and Vancouver were carrying on. Let us not feel that we are just outposts of the liberal church out here. Our friends across the country have a real admiration for us."

Edmund Chambers, a Canadian Minister, who was chaplain for the American-Polish volunteers who trained at Niagara and went overseas with that famous little army, went to Poland with them and is now engaged in Y.M.C.A. work as Canada's representative in Poland.

LIGNITE COAL IS POOR IN QUALITY IN TURKEY IN ASIA

Local railway lines in the Near East have been under Turkish control during the war, says the Guaranty Trust of New York, and although their rolling stock and roadbeds deteriorated because of lack of care and repairs, their chief difficulty now is to obtain sufficient coal to maintain a more regular and extended service. Some coal has been discovered and mined at Soma and Söğüt, but it is of an inferior quality resembling lignite.

Even before the war certain projects had been undertaken to improve the means of communication and transportation in the empire and to reclaim what was once the most fertile land in the world. To correct the defects of the Bagdad railway, which was built by the Germans on strategic plans, to serve their military purposes, a branch line was built to Angora, and was to be extended to Karsaizye, while others were proposed to Marash and to Urfa along the line that connects Kilis with Nisibin. Here is an arc of green extending from Aleppo to Mosul and reaching to the foot of the Armenian hills which can be made as productive as it was before anarchy banished cultivation from the land. The railroad and security will help to bring it back.

In Upper Syria it will probably be the task of France to build a line from Alexandretta, connecting the Mediterranean, in the neighborhood of Antioch, with the Persian Gulf. In Lower Syria the Cairo-to-Bagdad line—the short cut to India—which has already reached Palestine, will one day, under British direction, be completely accomplished. Or another line, perhaps, will be built across the Syrian desert, which will connect Haifa with Basra direct.

SPECIAL PATROL TO GUARD HOUSES WILL BE INAUGURATED SOON

A "hoodlum patrol" whose sole duty will be to protect empty houses from the depredations of thieves and rowdies will be inaugurated by the Police Commission, according to an announcement made by Mayor Porter yesterday. The condition of many houses as a result of the activities of hoodlums has alarmed the civic authorities, and a little of it and they are determined to do something to put an end to present conditions. The patrol will take the form of a plainclothes official, who will have the whole city to oversee. The police commissioners feel that if he is the right kind of a man he will be able to do a great deal to protect vacant property.

BATTLEFIELDS FOR SALE.

In a number of French newspapers advertisements are appearing offering for sale fields and ruins which were the actual scenes of some of the fiercest fighting of the war. These sites are guaranteed to be just as the opposing armies left them, with trenches, dug-outs, barbed-wire entanglements, and dismantled tanks and guns. Naturally the new owners expect to reap handsome profits from the many visitors who will be swarming over France in the next few years.

ON SOLDIER FARMS.

Mrs. J. D. Gordon Tells of Work Among Settlers' Wives.

An interesting address relating to her work among the families of returned soldiers settled on farms throughout British Columbia was given by Mrs. J. D. Gordon, director of the Homes Branch of the Land Settlement Board, at the meeting of the Langford Women's Institute yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Gordon outlined how the Women's Institutes in the various districts could be of great assistance to the newcomers and in promoting community welfare by the establishment of health centres, which must not, of course, be regarded as substitutes for hospitals.

Mrs. Gordon was glad to see that Langford had a district nurse, and offered suggestions as to how the Institute might be of assistance to her in her duties. Reference was made to the proposed plan to bring out overseas maternity nurses for practical work as well as nursing service in the homes of the soldier-settlers, and expressed the hope that before long a feasible plan would be arranged for instituting this system, which, she pointed out, would not compete with the graduate nurses now with the Victorian Order of Nurses, but would be in operation in the isolated sections where these organized bodies do not reach.

In addition to the 547 branches located in every important city and town in Canada and Newfoundland, there are sixty-eight branches in the West Indies, Central and South America.

The Standard Oil Co. recently erected an industrial Y.M.C.A. plant in the foreign section of Bayonne, N.J., at a cost of $300,000.

LETTERS

Letters addressed to the Editor and intended for publication must be short, and legibly written. The longer an article the shorter the chance of insertion. All communications must bear the name and address of the writer, but not for publication unless the owner wishes. The publication or rejection of articles is a matter entirely in the discretion of the Editor. No responsibility is assumed by the paper for MSS. submitted to the Editor.

STATEMENT FALSE.

To the Editor.—Re the statement of J. Gilligan with reference to myself as reported in your last evening's issue: Permit me to state that it is wholly false.

ERNEST HALL.

AN OPTIMIST.

To the Editor.—The tax I paid on the first house I built in Victoria over thirty years ago, was about fifteen dollars, last year it was $95.35. Now it has jumped $119.7. Where is it going to end? Some honest people are occasionally hard up for five cents, while others are paying fabulous prices for undergarments. The affairs of the whole world seem upside down, so many things are wrong, high (ridiculously high) prices for food and labor. I have always been one of the brightest and happiest of God's creatures, and in spite of these fearful things I am full of hope. Perhaps it is because I live in a gloriously lovely British Columbia, so we must hope for better times.

ANSWERING MR. ALMOND.

To the Editor.—We, the undersigned, beg to request that you allow us a small space in your columns to refute a charge made by a Mr. H. C. Almond in a letter published in your columns of the 20th inst.

The letter in part states: "One of these instances occurred at Work Point Barracks; it's too bad a suitable returned man couldn't be put in charge of these jobs, but it seems they prefer slacks to real men."

Mr. Almond here was misinformed from proceeding on the system of willfully misrepresented facts in connection with that particular job. The man in charge is a recently returned man and served his apprenticeship at the particular trade in question. Working under him were ten men who have seen service during the late war, two men who were through the South Africa, Benin and China campaigns, and who served in the home forces, and were prevented from proceeding overseas through physical and medical qualifications, and one man who was over age, making a total of thirteen men who have seen service with the Union Jack.

We are of the opinion that such statements as are made by Mr. Almond are actuated by jealousy, motives, and are detrimental to the ex-service men in general.

MUNICIPAL TAXATION.

To the Editor.—The municipality has become possessed of certain parcels of land in payment of arrears of taxes. We may all regret the circumstances that led up to the event, but the future prospects of the land would be more beneficial to the community. Places like Liverpool, when they become possessed of land, by reason of local improvements or otherwise, hold it in trust for the good of the community. It is not those who may require it for bona fide development on reciprocal terms. We all know that numbers of business propositions have come to this city time and again but have been driven away by the necessity of having to purchase land at an exorbitant price, land bought and held on speculation. It is not a very sound policy of any new industry to spend its capital on the purchase of land and pawn the land for the money to pay for its utilization. It is equally poor policy for a community to hold land against the use of those whose presence amongst them could make that community more prosperous.

Look at the unprecedented advantage and prosperity Victoria has enjoyed by reason of the liberal policy adopted by the present Government in leasing land on the Reserve to the shipbuilding industry. It was a wise and sound policy on behalf of the Government to foster this industry. Would any of those industries have embarked a dollar in the purchase of land? No, they would not! The Government said the land is the people's, you are welcome to its use on reciprocal terms for the public benefit. That has been a God-send to every ratepayer in Victoria. The city did nothing towards it.

As a general rule it is not sound policy to sell public-owned land. Let some one use it on reciprocal terms; the tenants' improvements add to the common fund; the income or profit he may derive from its use benefits the community more or less. In Liverpool, for instance, corporation leases are granted in perpetuity subject to renewal every seven, fourteen or twenty-one years; that is, they are revised or readjusted as to amount payable, not as to tenure, at fixed periods to equalize values. This is found an admirable and equitable arrangement.

1847 ROGERS BROS. SILVERWARE

You want the best

In these days, particularly, it is economy to buy the best silverware—for the true value of silverware is measured in years of service.

There is only one brand of silverware that can point to seventy years of service—and that is 1847 Rogers Bros. Combined with this remarkable durability is the attractiveness of the many patterns. Be sure to ask for it by its FULL name, 1847 Rogers Bros.

This city. I am not a native myself; I am merely here as a visitor for the winter months from Manitoba, being attracted by leaflets issued by the Victoria and Island Development Association.

I am thoroughly in love with your city and intend as soon as I can straighten my business affairs to buy a residence for myself and family, but I do not fancy having Chinese for neighbors or for playmates for the children. A few days ago I with a friend went to a very pretty place called Victoria West, overlooking the Arm, and off Catherine Street, to look at a residence with a view to purchase. It was an ideal spot and we fell in love with it. But on investigation we found a Chinese occupied the property adjoining, so we called that off. The same thing occurred to me in another direction.

To me it seems a waste of the city's money to employ an agent to go abroad to tell of the beautiful climate and picturesque environments and also a waste of our money in coming here only to find the Oriental element is allowed to camp anywhere so long as they have the price. I claim the Oriental should be segregated; the white and the yellow race can have nothing in common.

Having travelled extensively since leaving my home in England I have never met with a place so enchanting and captivating to one who wishes scenery and climate conditions, to say nothing of the sports to be enjoyed, i.e., boating, fishing, hunting, motoring, golfing, or bowling on the green, the latter a genuine old English game.

I may be wrong, but I look forward to the day when Victoria will command more interest from the outside world than she at present enjoys. By a glance at the map we can easily see she is the first as well as the last point of call for all ships, and it must follow that she be Great Britain's naval base on the Pacific coast. Before closing I will remind those interested that Victoria affords more sport and amusement than any place I have yet visited. Although I am from Manitoba and we are jealously known as "the great unwashed," I cannot stomach the idea of living next door to Chinese whose odors are not of famed Cathay.

NEWS AND NOTES OF THE MINES

Mountain Chief.

Following the developments of the fall on the Mountain Chief copper property at Renata, in the way of a shaft sunk in ore, drifts in the ore-body at the new depth, and large test shipments to the Trail smelter, this young mine is now prepared to break out all the ore that the C. P. R. will handle for the entire winter, says The Nelson News. One large load now is being discharged at Robson to go by rail to Trail, and the transportation company is now allowing the mine two deck-charges a week, putting the limit at 200 tons. When the ice comes on the Arrow lakes, one of these barges, if precedent is followed, will be recalled, to be used as an ice-breaker in the narrow between the upper and lower lakes.

Bush Mine.

A report from the Bush mine, adjoining the Premier on the north, near Stewart, is that high-grade has been struck in the lower tunnel. Wagons are now going clear through to the Premier mine and the road will be completed in about a week.

In Franklin Camp.

A new ore body that so far has shown 20 feet of width without reaching the wall, has been opened in a drift in the Union mine of the Franklin camp, according to a report from Grand Forks. The Union has made two shipments to Trail smelter recently, aggregating 81 tons.

Beatrice Mine.

The Beatrice mine, of Cambourne, is beginning to ship, and it is the intention of the New Era Mines, Limited, to continue the shipment of ore while developing the property. E. Bodine, a mining engineer who has been engaged until recently in the Mount McKinley district with the United States Geological Survey, is in charge of operations. W. E. Morphy, managing director of the company, reports that on No. 2 level, from which considerable ore was taken in 1911, the face is in ore and mining work will be continued in this body all winter.

Vancouver Assay Office.

An increase of $1,017.75 is shown in the gold deposited at the Dominion Assay Office, Vancouver, for the month of October in comparison with the total for the same month in 1918. The aggregate value of the deposits last month was $804,231.70, most of the gold coming from the Yukon and the Kootenay districts.

Nome Tin Mine.

Development of a tin digging near Nome, known as the Hainin mine, is reported by Harry Pidgin, veteran mining man of that district, who returned to Seattle for the winter upon the steamer Victoria and is at the Hotel Frye, says The Post-Intelligencer. According to Mr. Pidgin, tin has been a placer mining possibility of the North since the beginning of the mining industry, but while scarcely a season passed without the shipment of a few tons of tin taken from the rifles and panned in the streams, it was not until last year that the first mine prepared to produce tin quartz was opened. "It is owned by Alaska men, backed by Eastern capitalists, who propose to put the mine into the best possible shape before ore is taken out for shipment," he said. "The vein, in so far as it has been followed, shows high-grade ore that will pay well for operation."

Want New Road.

Thirty-five mineowners in the Lightning Peak district, most of whom would be producers in a small way, at any rate, if shipping facilities were more propitious, are getting out a petition that is to be presented to the local government for a 10-mile extension of the present Edgewood pre-emption road. If the government can be induced to make the extension, the highway will be brought within twelve miles of the camp, and this will materially reduce the present high shipping costs. At the present time it costs about $80 per ton to ship ore out and $80 per ton to ship supplies into the camp. This, it is claimed, would be reduced to $12 and $15 respectively if the desired improvement were made.

Visiting Kootenays.

G. H. Aylard, of Victoria, vice-president and managing director of the Standard Silver Lead Mining Company, and C. Hume, of Spokane, secretary-treasurer of the same corporation, have arrived at Nelson en route to Silverton.

On Visit Here.

A. J. Larson, of Spokane, the well-known operator, is on a visit to Victoria, having arrived Monday.

LEAVING FOR VANCOUVER

Alexander MacKenzie Will Reside in Future at Terminal City.

Alex. MacKenzie, one of Victoria's most successful young business men, will remove this week to Vancouver, where he will reside permanently. Mr. MacKenzie, who has extensive interests in the Terminal City and Cariboo country, is a native son of Victoria. He formerly was connected with the Royal Bank, and later entered the real estate business.

A few years ago he purchased the tug Lornet, which he still retains possession of, besides being a large stockholder in the B. C. Stevedoring Company, Ltd., of Vancouver, and also in the Queenie Timber & Trading Company, Ltd., operating saw-mills, shingle mills and logging camps in the Cariboo country.

Mr. MacKenzie's interests are such that they require his headquarters to be located in Vancouver. He carries with him the best wishes for continued prosperity of his numerous friends. He is a member of the Pacific and Elks clubs, Victoria, and the Transportation and Terminal City clubs, Vancouver.

Things One Would Like to Have Done

From "Saturday Night Thoughts," in The Boston Transcript.

How naturally and gladly the heart responds to tales of the heroic deeds of men in common life. No age, no month, indeed, is barren of them. One of the wayside mercies for the student of his own times in the record of the daily newspaper is the discovery of heroes as he goes along. They are better worth collecting than postage stamps or porcelain, for they enrich the heart. Our human life, thank God, is not all folly and lies, domestic quarrels paraded for the demoralization of the public, political and industrial disturbances, the lingering echoes of battle and the outbreak of the private war of strikes and riots. There is courage in the hearts of the people, and an ideal which will not in emergency stop short of giving life for others. Among all the benefactions which Andrew Carnegie provided out of his good will and money I am not sure but the hero medals may have the most lasting popular remembrance. They go to all classes; but most of them to men who are doing the hard and little noticed work of the world. If these men can be heroes, why may not we? If the great war developed courage in a million unexpected places, why may not peace have her ideals and emulations also? May it not, after all, be a part of the regular day's work to live and think so as to be ready for emergency and opportunity when they spring out upon us?

I am not thinking, you will note, entirely of courage in battle, in danger, in emergency; but also of service rendered in thoughts and words. How many a boy's imagination has been kindled by the story of the discoverer. Next to the Bible "Robinson Crusoe" has been the "best seller" of the world. How many a reader has been thrilled by the last lines of that famous sonnet of Keats: He stared at the Pacific—and all his men

Looked at each other with a wild surprise.

Silent upon a peak in Darien.

It is for this that we read poetry and fiction, yes, and history; too, that we may identify ourselves in imagination with Ulysses bound to the mast among his deafened crew to hear the sirens sing, or Hannibal crossing the snowy passes of the Alps, or Socrates drinking the hemlock at the order of his judges, or Angelo when he drew that picture of the Creating of Man, or Washington at Valley Forge or Yorktown, or our own Army clearing the woods of the Argonne Forest, to make a way for the freedom of the world.

The point at which all deeds of valor meet, if they are to hold our admiration, is the point of thought or help for others. There must be some element of service. We soon tire of even the boldest life spent in the following of pure selfishness. So even Napoleon worries us at last. At this point many a quiet, unstudied deed or word takes on the color of heroism and makes us feel a stir of brotherhood, yes, even a wish that we might do as well when our own opportunity offers. There is no heroism, for example, in saving money for a miff, though it may be difficult if wages are small and the saving girl has many needs in a world where she is quite alone. I am thinking of a girl out in Colorado, a member of a church in a new community which needed money to pay off a mortgage on its property. The people were poor and the debt was large. Everyone must do something. She related her desire to the common need by self-denial. She subscribed what to her was the enormous sum of $20, and as she did so whispered to her chum, "There goes my muff!" It is a simple tale, but it marks the difference between service and self-service plainly. And it is at just that point that the fellowship of heroic souls of all our human life begins. We do not always recognize this heroic quality in our women, with their often quiet lives, because it inheres so largely in their character as women that we are tempted to accept it as a matter of course. With the women we know and love best there is no surprise, because we know it could not be otherwise. I read long since some extracts from a book of a woman's travels in the Middle East. The one that pleased me best was the story of the Bedouin chief who gave the author, Miss Gertrude Bell, his favorite horse to hold while he went forward to reconnoitre some suspicious strangers. "In the day of raids," he said, "I do not trust my mare to my own brother, lest he should see the foe and fear and ride away. But to you I give her because I know that the heart of the English is strong." Would it not thrill us to think that we in our own person and we as a nation might deserve like testimony to courage and to character? And yet as a result of the life and work of the men and women who have represented us in these same regions of the world, who stayed and served and nursed and taught through the war and massacre and starvation, the Armenians—yes, even the Turks and Syrians—trust us and want us as their helpers in the bringing back of peace and security to their impoverished lands.

bec; Dr. W. C. Laidlaw, Chief Medical Health Officer of Alberta; W. F. Stephen, Representing Agricultural Interests; Dr. M. M. Holland, Secretary of the Council; Dr. Gordon Bell, Chief Medical Health Officer of Manitoba.

There are tales of individual devotion that stir the heart. Mr. Richard Kearton, the famous English naturalist, tells of a Masai boy who, when his own soldier brother was ill in Africa, "ran seven miles through a country infested by man-eating lions to obtain the cow's milk on which the invalid's life depended." It was in love of Christ and in the love of men which Christ teaches, that those missionaries in Asia of whom I have been speaking held to their work. But we are not to think that deeds of love and service which stir our hearts to thoughts of emulation are a monopoly of Christians. That dark-skinned boy who for love of Mr. Cherry Kearton ran fourteen miles among the lions tells a braver story. It was a Samaritan, remember, who took pity on the man who fell among thieves on the road to Jericho. Christianity does not create, it evokes and enlarges and directs the natural courage and devotion of the human heart. And it is able to make its appeal on the example and character of its unflinching and courageous Lord.

No man ever learned to be a coward in the companionship of Christ.

We do wrong to picture him as he is shown in the weak, sentimental and effeminate paintings which have come to us from Germany. For the other side of the sentimental is too often cruelty and the black deception of self-seeking. Mr. Sargent has yielded to this weakness of representing Christianity as an exclusively emotion faith in his new picture of the Church in the Boston Public Library. He has put a tortured Christ almost out of sight between the knees of a staring woman as a symbol of the courage and forth-reaching enterprise to which the manly Christ sent his disciples. Strength and courage and enterprise and authority were the elements which his own generation recognizes in Jesus. Dr. Newman Smyth once asked a Japanese student, who had come to Yale what was the strongest impression made upon his mind when he first read the Gospels. "It was Christ's journey up to Jerusalem," he said. "O, the courage of it! Christ was the one man of history of whom it is true that he never knew fear." We shall have to look well to ourselves and to our teaching lest the new children of the Church from other lands and races have a stronger and manlier thought of Jesus than we who inherit the traditions of the Christian ages.

I do not know how old was that African boy who ran through the land of lions for his master, but I must put beside it the story of an ard in the companionship of Christ.

For the other side of the sentimental is too often cruelty and the black deception of self-seeking. Mr. Sargent has yielded to this weakness of representing Christianity as an exclusively emotion faith in his new picture of the Church in the Boston Public Library. He has put a tortured Christ almost out of sight between the knees of a staring woman as a symbol of the courage and forth-reaching enterprise to which the manly Christ sent his disciples. Strength and courage and enterprise and authority were the elements which his own generation recognizes in Jesus. Dr. Newman Smyth once asked a Japanese student, who had come to Yale what was the strongest impression made upon his mind when he first read the Gospels. "It was Christ's journey up to Jerusalem," he said. "O, the courage of it! Christ was the one man of history of whom it is true that he never knew fear." We shall have to look well to ourselves and to our teaching lest the new children of the Church from other lands and races have a stronger and manlier thought of Jesus than we who inherit the traditions of the Christian ages.

IMPERATOR IS WONDERFUL SHIP

Former German Liner Now Operated by Cunard Line Last Word in Luxury

Imperator, once the pride of the German merchant marine, now flies the British flag. This leviathan of the deep, which has been assigned to the Cunard Steamship Company to replace the Lusitania, will sail from New York December 10 for Plymouth, Cherbourg and Southampton.

Christened by the ex-Kaiser, the Imperator was the first of two mammoth liners, each with a displacement of 70,000 tons, built by the Hamburg-American Line. The great size of the Imperator is not the only impressive feature about her. In addition to the main dining saloon, passengers have a choice of a number of attractive dining rooms. A metropolitan atmosphere is lent by the Ritz-Carlton restaurant and in addition there is a grill room, tea garden, veranda cafe, a variety of ladies' sitting rooms and a palm garden, which in the winter is transformed into a sun parlor. A superbly appointed ballroom is equipped with a practical stage for theatrical performances and concerts. The staircases, passageways, decks and saloons are remarkable for their spaciousness. The entrance hall is ninety-five feet wide and sixty-nine feet in length. The three grand main staircases in the main cabin are fifty-seven feet high. The ship also is equipped with passenger elevators running through five decks.

Roman Bath
The Roman bath of the Imperator with its decorative Pompeian pillars and ornamental cascades of running water is a masterpiece. The swimming pool is built after designs of the ancient Romans. The total length of the Roman bath is sixty-five feet and the width forty-one feet. The pool within is thirty-nine feet long, twenty-one feet wide and nine feet deep. The sea water in the pool is constantly renewed through decorative cascades. Electric, Turkish and steam baths, massage apparatus and hair-dressing saloons, with the most modern equipments, are also provided.

The liner has two large covered promenade decks and one open promenade on the boat deck. The upper promenade deck is enclosed in the front and along two-thirds of the length of each side by heavy plate glass windows, serving as shelter from the high winds. Both the first and second accommodations are equipped with splendidly appointed gymnasiums.

Tremendous Power
The Imperator is equipped with quadruple turbine engines of 72,000 horse power and developing an average speed of twenty-two and a half knots. One of the immense turbine motors, containing 50,000 blades a final return trip fare is $150, with 1920. The rate quoted covers transportation, berth, side trips, meals and entertainment.

This wonderful trip will take the traveler from British Columbia through the fertile valleys of Oregon, over the Sierran range, the upper reaches of the Sacramento, to Shasta Springs at the base of Mount Shasta, down the Sacramento Valley to San Francisco, along the rolling foothills of the Santa Clara Valley to Stanford University and San Jose, on to Monterey with its historic traditions, to Santa Cruz, San Barbara, with its historic mission, to Los Angeles, from Los Angeles side trips will be made to Redlands, Riverside and other points of interest in the famed orange belt. Special representatives will be assigned to each train personally to conduct the tourists making the excursions.

PRINCE ALBERT HERE.

The G. T. P. steamer Prince Albert, Captain Robson, was in port this forenoon from Tuck's Inlet with sixty tons of fertilizer for Brackman-Ker. She left early this afternoon for Nanaimo to load a cargo of 600 tons of coal for the North.

A Witness Testifies SHE WAS WEAK AND NERVOUS

Brampton, Ont.—"About five years ago I began suffering from a woman's trouble, became all run-down and weak and nervous. I was so completely run-down and out that I could not do anything, could scarcely dress myself, I had the doctor and took other medicine but without getting better until I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and Golden Medical Discovery. It was only necessary for me to take about three bottles when I was completely restored to health and strength and I have been in better health than I ever was before. I have had no use for medicine since, but should I need it I would take these same remedies, knowing them to be excellent."—MRS. HARRY KNIGHT, Jessie St.

OWES HER LIFE
Pt. Saskatchewan, Alta.—"It is with great pleasure that I write the following and I hope it will help the many sufferers who do not know the good Dr. Pierce's medicine would do them if they would try them. I referred to my condition. I will say that I suffered from childhood from a very weak back; I had the misfortune of having spinal meningitis when I was one year old and until I was 13 I did not see a well day, but a very kind lady told my mother about Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and she got a bottle to try it. It did me so much good that mother got me 6 bottles. Recently I happened with a car accident and hurt my back badly. My doctor gave me up and said I would not live, but I still stuck to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and to my surprise in three weeks I was out of bed and better. I love my life to it and nothing else, and shall never be without it. If any sufferer wishes to write I will answer with pleasure."—MRS. NOEL RARTHOLOMEW.

MONTEAGLE WILL GO TO WILLIAM HEAD

C.P.O.S. Liner Will Embark Coolies After Touching at This Port

On her outward voyage to the Far East the Canadian Pacific Ocean Services liner Monteagle, Capt. A. J. Hosken, R.N.R., will reach the Outer Docks about 8 o'clock to-night from Vancouver via bunkering ports.

After picking up local passengers and mails the liner will shift to William Head to embark Chinese coolies. The Monteagle will carry about 1,000 coolies, and is expected to sail tomorrow morning for the Orient.

The C. P. O. S. liner Empress of Russia, Capt. S. Robinson, R.N.R., is due to get away to sea on Thursday for the Orient with saloon passengers and coolies. She will carry 2,000 men of the Chinese Labor Corps in her steerage quarters.

The Blue Funnel liner Ixion, Capt. James Inkster, which is also due to take Chinese coolies back to their homes in the Orient, will get away from Seattle, where she has been loading cargo, on Friday for William Head.

who has been appointed collector of customs for Vancouver. Colonel Carey left Victoria for overseas as a lieutenant with the 67th Battalion (Western Scots), was transferred to the 102nd in France, and commanded that battalion at the time they later in the battle of Vimy in 1917. After he was transferred to take command of the 54th Battalion, and was in command of that unit right until the battle of Cambrai and the signing of the armistice, returning home with his battalion for demobilization. Colonel Carey was given the Cross of the Order of St. Michael and St. George for his services in France. The office of collector of customs in Vancouver has been practically vacant since the death of the late J. M. Bowell, several years ago. It has been administered since that time by Lieut.-Col. C. A. Worsnop, who has held the office of assistant collector of customs.

FRASER RIVER FERRY LAUNCHED AT YARROWS

The hull of the steel shallow-draft ferry built for the Fraser River service at Mission, B. C., was launched yesterday afternoon by Yarrows, Ltd., at Esquimalt. The 90-foot craft went aloft without a hitch. Power will be installed in the vessel at New Westminster, to which port she will be towed within the next few days.

The ferry was designed to handle the vehicular and pedestrian traffic across the Fraser River, and will replace the old wooden ferry at Mission.

KEEPING ABREAST OF TRADE REQUIREMENTS

Canadian-Australasian Line Pressing More Tonnage Into Canadian Service

Importance of the Canadian trade to New Zealand and Australia is shown by the fact that the Canadian-Australasian Line, and its parent company, the Union Steamship Company of New Zealand, are active in keeping abreast of the requirements of the trade.

This is necessitating cargo carrier, passenger space and cargo carriers. Some months ago the Canadian-Australasian Line announced that a new passenger ship would be built. It is now stated that this ship, building at Fairfields, will be larger than the Empresses of the C. P. O. S., and will be speedier and more palatial than the present magnificent liners, Makura and Niagara. It is expected the vessel will be ready next year.

This ship will be 600 feet long and will carry passengers and cargo between Honolulu, Suva, New Zealand, Australia and Canada. She will take the place of the splendid new steamship Avenger, which was completed in December. The ship was broken out and was later sunk by a submarine while on naval service, having been commandeered by the admiralty.

Regarding the new cargo ships of the Canadian-Australasian Line, the British Columbia offices state that the Walrusa is now at San Francisco and will reach Vancouver this week. She is a ship of 3,900 dead-weight tons. The 9,000-ton steamship Walkawa left Newport News Sunday with coal for the United States naval depot on the Sound. She will load at Vancouver for Australia in December. The 580-ton Walrusa, 9,000 tons, is expected to leave London in December for British Columbia. All these ships bear the names of vessels that visited the coast before the war, but have been lost by mines and submarines. They were purchased to replace the lost ships.

A Stubborn Cough Loosens Right Up

This Home-made Remedy is a Wonder for Quick Results. Easily and Cheaply Made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up a stubborn cough. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for colds, hoarseness, croup, throat tickle, bronchitis, asthma or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth), into 16-oz. bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you get much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for $1.50. Keeps perfectly and children love the pleasant taste.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membranes.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

Planned by Western Union Telegraph Co. at Cost of $10,000,000

At a cost of $8,000,000 to $10,000,000, a new cable will be laid between Seattle and China, via Japan, by the Western Union Telegraph Company in conjunction with Japanese interests. It is announced from San Francisco by Newcomb Carlton, president of the Western Union. The route selected runs from Seattle to Japan by way of the Aleutian Islands, and from Japan to either Shanghai or Hongkong.

News of President Carlton's announcement was received in an Associated Press dispatch from San Francisco. The new cable is to have overland connections with Peking, China. In length the new cable will exceed 4,000 nautical miles. Laying of the cable is to begin soon.

ROYAL VICTORIA

"Whoever heard of an actress writing a popular novel?" inquired an incredulous male person during the filming of Elsie Ferguson's new Art-craft photograph, "A Society Exile," which is the attraction at the Royal Victoria theatre for the last time to-night.

"Lots of them have," a woman came right back. "There's Mrs. Leonard Thomas, who writes poetry under the name of 'Michael Strange'; and Carmen Sylva, the well-known poetess and novelist, was not only heiress to millions, but the Queen of Rumania besides."

The question was occasioned by the fact that in "A Society Exile," Miss Ferguson plays the part of Nora Sharr, the daughter of a millionaire, and the author of a "best seller." She is taken to England by an aunt, where she is courted by a dissolute lord. Nora refuses him, and in revenge the thwarted Britisher has her hooded out of England on a trumped up charge. She flies to Italy and becomes a resident of Venice, where happiness finally comes to her. The picture is from the well-known English play, "We Can't Be as Bad as All That."

COLUMBIA

Carol Holloway, who probably has had more thrilling escapes than any other feminine photoplay serial star and who crowns her record for daring in "The Iron Test," the new Vitagraph serial in which she co-stars with Antonio Moreno, worked with a circus troupe to become expert enough to perform the hazardous stunts which are among the thrills in the first episode of the picture, a new episode of which is being shown on the current Columbia programme, featuring Beatriz Michelena in "The Unwritten Law." One of the greatest circus stars in the business was her instructor. Declaring her one of the most apt pupils he ever had, he made her a tempting offer to join his act. Before the end of the six days she had learned even the most dangerous of his tricks. Antonio Moreno had the same instructor and Miss Holloway is now expert enough to star in a circus as a trapeze performer.

ROMANO

A striking, interesting unusual picture is "Home Wanted," the new World Picture starring Madge Evans, which will be shown at the Romano for the last time to-day. It is fast-moving, entertaining and pleasing. It is the sort of a picture the whole family thoroughly enjoys. Miss Evans is supported by a notable cast in this production. Hugh Thompson, who appeared as leading man for Evelyn Grey in "Phil-for-Short," has an important role, as has Jack Drummer, who has been seen in a great many World Pictures with much success. There are a number of other film favorites in this picture.

FAIRBANKS' NEW ROLE.

Having completed the filming of his latest United Artists production, "When the Clouds Roll By," Douglas Fairbanks is en route to the Hopi Indian reservation, Arizona, where he will be the guest of that tribe for the next week, besides spending several days at the Grand Canyon. Robert Fairbanks, production manager; Tom Geraghty, scenario editor, and Frank Campeau, accompanied the star. During the absence of the party the latest picture is being prepared for release under the supervision of John Fairbanks and Director Victor Fleming, and will be given final inspection when the star returns.

NOT A BABY, BUT A MONKEY.

What was apparently a body, or rather, a skeleton, of a baby was discovered at Kingston, England. The remains were conveyed to Kingston mortuary, and the police and the coroner were apprised of the fact. When the post-mortem was about to be made by the doctor it was found that the remains, instead of being those of a baby, were those of a monkey.

At the present time the hospital manufactures its own light, but the system is not satisfactory and causes a great deal of trouble besides entailing more work than the staff can properly perform, and the ladies wish to install power from the company.

Cumberland Incensed.

The Cumberland police authorities are determined to put a stop to the illegal and unsportsmanlike practice of hunting at night, and the severest measures will be taken to stamp it out. For some time back it has been known that a considerable amount of this illegal hunting has been going on, and the guilty ones were being successful in avoiding detection.

Within the past week, however, several of them have been apprehended, particularly a party of four residents of this district who were captured near Fanny Bay. When a search was made of the automobile in which they were riding a number of rifles and considerable ammunition were secured, as well as several miners' lamps ready for operation. All the paraphernalia was seized and the names of the men secured.

The matter has been reported to the provincial authorities and it is understood that the case will be prosecuted from headquarters—Cumberland Island.

School Board Meeting.

The next regular monthly meeting of the Board of School Trustees of Port Alberni will be held in the City Hall on Friday, December 5.

Sale of Work.

The annual sale of work and home cooking was held by the St. John's Anglican Church, Ladysmith, last Saturday afternoon in the Knights of Pythias Hall and was a huge success. The stalls were fully stocked with splendid articles of all kinds, as were also the home cooking and candy stalls with their particular lines. Mesdames Carley and Hartley were in charge of the needlework stall. Mrs. Jessup was in charge of the home cooking, Mrs. Dalton presided over afternoon tea, while Mrs. Bailey had charge of the candy stall. A Sunday school stall was well looked after by several girls from the school. A grab-bag proved a source of endless amusement and financial gain. A handsome cushion was raffled and was won by Miss D. Bryant. As a result of the sale of work the sum of $110.50 was raised, and the affair pronounced by all to be a big success. The results were far ahead of last year's and so are very encouraging.

A Pealing Anthem Swells the Note of Praise

From Music Dealers, and from hundreds of people who have bought Curtiss Aeronolas since we placed them on the market a few weeks ago, there has come to us a spontaneous note of praise for its musical quality and artistic beauty. The is a fine talking machine. When you see and hear it, you will agree with us. We can best express it, perhaps, by saying that every refinement in the talking machine art has been successfully incorporated into the design and manufacture of the Curtiss Aeronola.

The Reproducer, the Tone Arm, the Tone Chamber, the specially designed Horn and the Motor are the finest that money can buy. And they have been so blended with perfect cabinet-making as to insure a musical instrument that is truly "The Last Word in Talking Machines."

But there is nothing that can be said about any musical instrument that can do justice to its qualities or defects. It must be seen and heard to be appreciated.

We urge you, therefore, to go to the music dealer you ordinarily patronize and ask him to demonstrate the Curtiss Aeronola to you. Don't be put off with any other machine. Insist on seeing and hearing the Aeronola.

If it so happens that he hasn't any in stock, tell him for us that we will ship all four models to him on the day his order is received at the factory.

WILL BE REVISION OF CUSTOMS TARIFF BY ITALIAN HOUSE

A provisional revival of the customs tariff which will increase duties on many articles is anticipated in Italy. The British (Government) Board of Trade Journal, discussing Italian tariffs and import restrictions, says:

"Interest centres in the revision of the existing customs tariff in connection with which a parliamentary commission has been at work since July, 1917. The need for revision is admitted on all hands since the existing tariff was established in 1877, and is out of date both with regard to classifications of merchandise and to the duties imposed. The Italian Government has taken steps to free its hands by denouncing existing commercial treaties or renewing them only for short periods. The Commission, however, is not expected to report until 1920, and in the meantime, according to one of the leading commercial newspapers, a provisional revision is to be made by a Royal Decree to be issued shortly. The statement lacks any official confirmation, but the Journal in question has published what purports to be the text of the decree, and a full list of the new duties. The immediate object of the measure is said to be the necessity of preventing the Italian market from being flooded by goods from the Central Powers, favored by the cheapness resulting from the low rate of exchange. About 120 out of 472 articles in the tariff are affected, and the increase in duty varies in general from 20 to 400 per cent. The decree would not apply to 'conventional' duties in the case of countries with whom a commercial treaty exists, nor in the case of these countries to the general list of duties unless a country has, since the beginning of the war, raised its own tariff against Italy."

In addition to likely increases in protection, the Italian Government is taking extensive and practical measures to develop the domestic market and support home industries. The United States Trade Commissioner to Rome has reported to the Department of Commerce at Washington as follows:

"In connection with the extensive improvements in the Italian telephone system which are contemplated, a Royal Decree of September 2, 1919, provides that, whenever possible, not only the construction work but also the supplying of the necessary equipment shall be allotted to Italian firms, which are defined as being those which actually manufacture in Italy with Italian capital and labor, and also use, when circumstances permit, raw material of Italian production."

"After the firms falling in the above category preference will be given to those which, although of foreign origin and, using foreign capital, manufacture the required material in Italy principally with Italian labor."

"Whenever it is necessary to depart from the above provisions and invite competitive bids, Italian firms are to be given a margin of protection of 10 per cent. with regard to foreign firms and of 5 per cent. over those which, although not actually Italian, manufacture in Italy. In the case of the latter, however, it is distinctly provided that the mere assembling of parts imported from abroad will not be considered as manufacture and will not entitle a firm to any preference."

NOTICE

To Our Patrons and the Public

OWING to the present high cost of Coal, extra cost of lighterage and handling of same, we are preparing a standard size Lump Coal which we will sell delivered within the City Limits for $12.00 per ton. This is screened Lump Coal at the MINES, NANAIMO, but not screened by ourselves at our wharf. This will be an excellent fuel for the furnace, grate or stove, and we will guarantee there will not be more than two to three hundred pounds of screenings to the ton. These screenings will be very economical fuel to the consumer for banking up the fires.

Special Meeting Called For Saturday Night to Discuss New Organization.

A meeting of all Imperial ex-soldiers, soldiers and nursing sisters is to be held in the Y. M. C. A. on Saturday evening, November 29, at 8 o'clock. Major Thomas, of the Imperial Forces, will address the meeting.

Among subjects to be discussed is the granting of the Canadian gratuity to all who served in the Imperial Forces, and forms will be obtainable at the meeting to be filled in.

The visit of Major T. B. Thomas is in connection with the organizing of a branch of the Imperial Veterans in Canada, in Victoria.

"FIGHTING SEVENTH" ORGANIZES IN CITY

Another Battalion Will Be Represented; Gen. Odium Speaks at Re-union

As a result of a reunion dinner held in the Dominion Hotel last evening the local members of the 7th Battalion, known throughout the Canadian Corps as the "Fighting Seventh," decided to form an association as a branch of the parent organization in Vancouver. Sergt.-Major Dawson was elected president of the new soldier association and J. Bolton will be the secretary. The following committee was appointed to inquire into the number of 7th Battalion men residing in the district and to communicate with Vancouver in regard to by-laws and constitution: Capt. Mathews, Sergt.-Major S. Redgrave, Capt. Merston, Sergt. Stevens, George Horan and M. McLagan.

The reunion dinner was a most successful affair. There were about 100 former members of the "Fighting Seventh" present. The guest of the evening was Brig.-Gen. Victor Odium, C. B., C. M. G., D. S. O., who left Vancouver as a major in the battalion, later commanding it and ultimately given command of a brigade. The general is looked up to with respect by every soldier who served under him, because he directed his fighting force from the front and not from the rear. His fearless reconnaissance of a certain sector in a whippet tank is now a matter of history.

Replied to Toast

General Odium made a very stirring speech in replying to the toast "Our Guests." He asked the men to preserve the spirit of loyal service to one another and stick together to help in the solution of the problems which confronted Canada.

Gen. Odium paid a glowing tribute to the work of the battalion overseas, and referred in feeling terms to the men who had laid down their lives. Col. W. Hart McHarg, the first O. C. of the 7th Battalion, fell leading his men into action on the second day of the Canadian Ypres. Advancing at the head of his men, carrying a walking stick as his sole defence, Col. Hart McHarg was killed, his example inspiring the battalion to accomplish the almost superhuman task they had been allotted, carrying their objective at the point of the bayonet under grueling fire.

Were Real Pioneers

The 7th Battalion was pioneer in many phases of war work, continued Gen. Odium. It organized the trench raid, the system of promoted rankers being commissioned in their own unit, and was the first to publish a trench journal, the "Listening Post." Gen. Odium announced that the memory of the 7th Battalion would be forever perpetuated in the First Regiment in British Columbia. The First Battalion of the First B. C. Regiment is to be in Vancouver, and the Third Battalion of the regiment in Victoria. The battle colors that the Seventh carried in France will be the colors that they are to carry here, concluded Gen. Odium.

COL. URQUHART HERE EN ROUTE TO SOUTH

Lieut.-Col. A. J. Urquhart, D. S. O., M. C., formerly O. C. 43rd Battalion, and an original officer of the 16th Battalion, reached the city yesterday afternoon. He was seriously wounded for the second time on the Rye road, and in the big offensive last fall and still is in very poor physical condition as a result. After serving with the 16th Battalion he became brigade major 3rd Brigade, leaving that appointment to return to the 16th as second in command to Lieut.-Col. "Cy" Peck.

Thereafter he was transferred to the 43rd Battalion Cameron Highlanders as O. C., and led them through the Passchendaele operations in November, 1917. He was severely wounded there. As soon as he was fit he returned again to his battalion and was with them until he was again wounded. Col. Urquhart, affectionately known as "Sandy," has a record for gallantry in the field second to none, and was an immensely popular officer.

TELLS HOW ARMY GOT ITS INFORMATION

Because of imperfect sound ranging and poor flash spotting, the attacking Canadians were at a great disadvantage at Passchendaele, according to Capt. G. G. Aiken, who lectured at the first meeting of the Royal Astronomical Society in the Girls' Central School last night, presided over by W. S. Drewry. The lecture was illustrated.

Capt. Aiken dealt with the work of the intelligence department of the army at the front, explaining flash spotting, counter-battery work, sound ranging, and instruments used to obtain information of the enemy's position.

"Intelligence consisted of every scrap of information, and as the war progressed became a complicated science," he said.

Harmless Means of Reducing Fat

Many fat people fear ordinary means for reducing their weight. Here is an extraordinary method. Extraordinary because while perfectly harmless no dieting or exercise are necessary.
